RBI hikes, signals more

● REPO RATE RAISED 25 BPs AFTER NEARLY 4 YEARS ● FY27 GDP, INFLATION ESTIMATES RAISED ● MPC CHANGES STANCE TO 'CALIBRATED TIGHTENING'

JOYDEEP GHOSH

Mumbai, October 7

THE RESERVE BANK of India (RBI) on Wednesday raised its benchmark repo rate by 25 basis points to 5.50%, its first increase in nearly four years, signalling the start of what economists expect could be a measured tightening cycle as rising energy costs, persistent food-price pressures and a weaker rupee cloud the inflation outlook.

More significantly, the six-member Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) shifted its stance from "neutral" to "calibrated tightening", reviving terminology last used during former Governor Urjit Patel's tenure eight years ago and signalling that further rate increases remain on the table. RBI Governor Sanjay Malhotra explained that this implies a "milder form" of a hiking cycle. "It's more data-dependent rather than kind of a pre-determined path," he added.

While the rate hike was unanimous, the MPC voted four-to-two to the change in policy stance. The policy marks a turn for the central bank at a time when the domestic economy remains resilient but inflation risks are building. The RBI raised its FY27 GDP growth direction of monetary policy. Malhotra said rate cuts were "off the table in the near term."

MDR rollout likely to be deferred to January 1

● No final decision as yet, but move aimed at giving merchants more transition time

KSHIPRA PETKAR

Mumbai, October 7

THE IMPLEMENTATION OF the new merchant discount rate (MDR) framework for UPI transactions may be deferred to January 1, 2027, from the earlier proposed rollout date of October 15, people familiar with the matter told FE.

While no final decision has been taken, the proposed deferment is aimed at giving merchants and the payments ecosystem more time to prepare for the transition, particularly during the festive season,

FESTIVE RELIEF ON THE CARDS

■ The proposed deferment comes amid the festive season, when digital payment volumes rise sharply

■ The framework proposes an MDR of 0.4% on person-to-merchant transactions above ₹2,000, capped at ₹300 for payments of ₹75,000 & above

■ No change is being contemplated in the framework

■ MDR facing a challenge in the Supreme Court, which has refused to stay its implementation and issued notices to the Centre, RBI and NPCI when digital payments and consumer spending typically see a sharp increase, the sources said, adding there would be no change in the framework announced already.

The proposed rollout also comes against the backdrop of an ongoing legal challenge to the framework. On September 28, the Supreme Court refused to stay the Centre's decision to impose MDR on specified person-to-merchant transactions.

GST reforms may unlock ₹60K-cr ITC for industry

SHUBHAM RANA

New Delhi, October 7

THE BROADENING OF tax credit and refund windows expected from the Goods and Services Tax (GST) Council's decisions on Thursday could unlock annual cash flows of ₹50,000-60,000 crore for industry at full maturity, according to estimates by three experts. This will help businesses plan their working capital and investment expenditure more efficiently. "If accumulated input tax credit (ITC) attributable to input services and capital goods is also brought within the refund mechanism, the pool could increase by ₹50,000-60,000 crore annually, subject to the final eligibility criteria and the refund methodology," according to a tax expert.

Another tax expert at a leading consultancy estimated the ITC currently stuck in the system at around ₹50,000 crore. However, "this does not mean the entire amount will flow into the system immediately," the expert cautioned, adding that the actual benefit would depend on grandfathering provisions and the expenditure eligible for refunds.

■ Impact of the proposed changes to the ITC framework is expected to be most visible in sectors such as pharmaceuticals, textiles, footwear, fertilisers, renewable energy and electric vehicles

"If the machinery component (of refunds) is actually released over five years, as reported, the annual cash-flow or ITC benefit could be materially smaller at the beginning," the expert said. A public finance economist also concurred with these estimates. All three requested anonymity, as the final numbers could change depending on the fine print of the measures the Council approves.

The GST reforms are likely to be implemented in a staggered manner, starting April 1, 2027.

STARLINK LAUNCH BEING BLOCKED, HE SAYS WITHOUT TAKING NAMES

Musk takes on India's 'oligarchs'

FE BUREAU

New Delhi, October 7

SPACEX FOUNDER ELON Musk on Wednesday accused unnamed "oligarchs" of blocking Starlink's entry into India to protect their "monopolistic chokehold" over consumers, in a veiled attack that appeared directed at the country's dominant telecom players Mukesh Ambani and Sunil Bharti Mittal.

Musk, however, did not name either Ambani, chairman of Reliance Industries, or Mittal, founder and chairman of Bharti Enterprises. "Unfortunately, we are being blocked by certain oligarchs in order to maintain their monopolistic chokehold on the Indian people. You can guess who they are," Musk posted on X. "This is a crime against the people of India!" Musk was responding to a post by X user the government's final clearances to begin services. Lauren Dreyer, vice-president, Starlink business operations, said the company had established around 20 gateway sites with hundreds of antennas and had built its Indian operations around domestic security requirements, including keeping user data within the country. Starlink has secured a Global Mobile Personal Communication by Satellite licence and IN-SPACe authorisation, but is still awaiting security and foreign-investment approvals before commercial services can begin.

The apparent reference to Ambani and Mittal is notable because both Reliance Jio and Bharti Airtel have partnerships with SpaceX to bring Starlink to their customers. Airtel's agreement allows the companies to explore distributing Starlink equipment through Airtel's retail stores, offering services to business customers and using Starlink to connect underserved communities.

CORE INFLATION EXPECTED TO SEE MARGINAL INCREASE

Sept retail inflation seen near 2-year high of 5.6%

FE POLL OF ECONOMISTS

SHUBHAM RANA
New Delhi, October 7

INDIA'S RETAIL INFLATION, based on the consumer price index (CPI), likely rose to a 23-month high of 5.6% in September because of higher food prices, according to an FE poll of 13 economists.

This would be the first time CPI inflation rises above 5% since December 2024 and the highest rate of inflation since October 2024. It would also mark the 11th straight month of an increase in retail inflation, and the fourth month in a row when inflation is higher than the Reserve Bank of India's (RBI) medium-term target of 4%.

With inflation rising and expected to continue doing so, the RBI's Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) on Wednesday raised interest rates for the first time in nearly four years, hiking the repo rate by 25 basis points to 5.5%. Economists expect the MPC to raise interest rates by another 25-50 basis points by the end of FY27.

The RBI also raised its CPI inflation forecast for the current financial year by 20 basis points to 5.2%, with inflation seen averaging 4.9% in July-September.

BLEAK OUTLOOK

Inflation (Y-o-Y, %)

CPI inflation was 4.45% in July and 4.82% in August, and RBI's forecast for the quarter implies inflation would be around 5.4% in September.

Estimates in the poll ranged between 5% and 5.9%. The Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation will release CPI data for September on October 12.

Economists said retail inflation in September is expected to have been driven higher by food prices, with core inflation estimated to have risen only slightly.

"The near-term outlook on inflation points towards continued pressures from supply side, on account of the deficient southwest monsoon, El Nino conditions and high volatility in international oil prices," RBI Governor Sanjay Malhotra said on Wednesday.

"Price pressures are increasingly becoming visible across a range of commodities within the food component, apart from oil. In addition, early signs of inflation becoming generalised are also evident from the increase in core inflation and higher inflation across a larger segment of the CPI basket," Malhotra said.

Food inflation, which rose to 6% in August, is seen increasing to around 7-8% in September, economists said.

According to Teresa John, an economist at Nirmal Bang Equities, vegetable prices are expected to rise 3% month-on-month in September, led by onions while prices of other vegetables are relatively contained. "Sugar prices are also expected to rise over 7% MoM reflecting pass-through of past increases. Cereals, pulses, and oils & fats will also see a sustained sequential rise," John said.

Fuel inflation is seen staying rising in September, reflecting the impact of petrol and diesel price hikes earlier in the year.

Core inflation, which excludes fuel and food items, is estimated to have risen slightly to 4.3% in September from a series high of 4.2% in August, as per the FE poll.

CPSE capex crosses halfway mark

● Investments up 12% YoY in H1; NHAI, Railways lead the pack

PRASANTA SAHU
New Delhi, October 7

CENTRAL PUBLIC SECTOR enterprises (CPSEs) achieved 51% of their FY27 capital expenditure target by September, spending ₹4.3 lakh crore against the ₹8.43 lakh crore annual goal.

Despite a 17% dip in capex in September, CPSE capex grew 11.7% year-on-year in H1FY27, from ₹3.85 lakh crore in the corresponding period a year ago.

The Railways led major spenders, with ₹1.88 lakh crore spent, representing 64.4% of its annual target of ₹2.92 lakh crore. It was followed by the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) at 45.5%, while NTPC and GAIL recorded relatively stronger progress at 70.8% and 74.6%, respectively. NHAI invested ₹85,228 crore against an annual target of ₹1.87 lakh crore.

CPSE capex performance in

MAJOR SPENDERS

H1FY27 was mixed, though. Railway Board spending rose 36.2% year-on-year, partly offsetting weaker spending by NHAI and ONGC. NHAI's capex fell 12.5% year-on-year in H1FY27, while ONGC's declined 11.5% to ₹14,552 crore. NTPC, the public sector power giant, posted 10.8% growth in capex to ₹21,952 crore.

Power Grid Corporation achieved 42.9% of its annual target, while ONGC achieved 48.5%. Indian Oil Corporation achieved 41.6%, spending ₹13,608 crore. GAIL achieved 74.6% of its target, spending ₹8,592 crore against an annual target of ₹11,518 crore.

Sixty-three CPSEs and government agencies with annual capex targets of ₹100 crore and above have set a combined investment target of ₹8.43 lakh crore for FY27. In FY26, these state-run entities invested ₹8.64 lakh crore, reaching 110% of their ₹7.85 lakh crore target.

In FY27, capex by the Railways and NHAI is estimated at ₹4.52 lakh crore, equivalent to 54% of the total capex target for state-run agencies for FY27. These two entities are almost fully funded through the Union Budget and account for 37% of the Centre's overall FY27 capex estimate of ₹12.2 lakh crore.

Monthly data shows that these entities' capex reached ₹81,108 crore in April 2026, up from ₹49,781 crore in the same month last year.

In May, capex was ₹63,553 crore, compared with ₹55,239 crore a year earlier, while June recorded ₹65,470 crore, against ₹62,425 crore in June 2025.

CPSE capex remained higher year-on-year through August, led by a sharp 63% surge in April and a 35% increase in July. However, momentum weakened thereafter, with growth slowing to around 5% in June and August.

Commerce ministry sets up cell to drive FTA gains

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, October 7

THE COMMERCE MINISTRY has set up an FTA utilisation cell to improve the use of free trade agreements (FTAs) by Indian exporters, amid concerns that the benefits of trade pacts signed by India so far have not been fully realised.

Commerce Secretary Rajesh Agrawal said the cell would work with export promotion councils (EPCs), industry associations and state governments to explain the opportunities available under FTAs and help businesses access them more effectively.

"The idea behind that FTA utilisation cell is to first explain the FTA and explain the opportunities to every entrepreneur across the country," Agrawal said at an event marking the first anniversary of the India-EFTA Trade and Economic Partnership Agreement (TEPA).

The cell will also work with EPCs to improve utilisation of individual agreements and prepare market-specific action plans for the next four to five years, he said.

The move comes against the backdrop of the government's experience that the potential of earlier FTAs has not been fully translated into higher exports. Agrawal said India's past experience with FTAs "has not been that great," and export growth in FTA partner countries has not been "phenomenally different" from growth in non-FTA markets.

The government is therefore seeking a more targeted approach to ensure that the preferential market access secured through trade negoti-

COMMERCE SECRETARY

Unless we work to use this trade actively for our people, our industry, our manufacturing, our farmers, we won't be able to benefit out of it ations is actually used by Indian companies.

"Trade agreements are being negotiated and finalised by the government. But until and unless we work to use this trade actively for our people, for our industry, for our manufacturing, for our farmers, we will not be able to benefit out of it," Agrawal said.

He called for each EPC to prepare a five-year action plan for every FTA, identifying non-tariff barriers, quality standards and potential anchor companies in partner markets.

The push assumes significance as India is rapidly expanding its network of trade agreements with developed economies. The EFTA agreement came into force on October 1, 2025, while the India-UK FTA has been operational since July 15 this year. The India-EU FTA is expected to be operationalised next year.

Together, the EFTA, EU and UK agreements will provide India preferential access to a market covering 32 countries, with a large share of bilateral trade eventually attracting zero tariffs, Agrawal said.

He said India's exports to the four EFTA countries are currently only around $2-3 billion, against an import market of around $500 billion, leaving substantial room for expansion.

Agrawal said India should aim to raise its share of the combined import basket of these markets to 2% over the next three to four years, with individual sectors and EPCs developing specific export strategies.

The secretary also emphasised that FTAs should not be viewed merely as instruments for reducing tariffs. Predictability of tariffs, he said, allows companies to take investment decisions, build supply chains and plan long-term business expansion with greater certainty.

He said the agreements with developed economies could also help India increase its participation in global value chains. India's participation in global value chains has risen from around 28-29% a decade ago to 37-38% currently, but there is significant headroom for further expansion, Agrawal added.

'Europe sees India as manufacturing hub'

EUROPEAN COUNTRIES ARE increasingly viewing India as a key hub for innovation and manufacturing, Union Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw said on Wednesday.

He said that new companies are entering

India and are making the country their production, manufacturing, design, and research hub.

So far, about 160,000 people have secured employment through the EFTA agreement, he told reporters on the sidelines of the India-EFTA Prosperity Summit here.

"European countries see India as a major innovation and manufacturing hub," Vaishnaw said.

"For the past two days, the second India-European Free Trade Association (EFTA) Prosperity Summit has been underway, and there have been very productive discussions between businesses on both sides as well as between the ministers of both sides," he said.

MoSPI sets green accounting vision

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, October 7

THE MINISTRY OF Statistics and Programme Implementation (MoSPI) on Wednesday released a strategy paper for 2026-2030 to expand India's environmental-economic accounting framework, including by bringing more natural resources and environmental indicators into the accounting system.

The road map aims to broaden the scope of environmental accounts to cover areas such as forests, minerals, soil resources, land, water and carbon stocks, while building on work undertaken so far, the ministry said.

"In order to effectively measure and monitor such a vast and evolving domain of environment accounting, to build upon the efforts and advancements made so far, it is essential to establish a forward-looking strategic framework for the further development of Environmental Accounts," the ministry said in a release.

The strategy provides a broad road map for introducing new subjects and strengthening existing areas of environmental accounting, with the aim of providing a more comprehensive picture of the interaction between the economy and natural resources.

Ministry unlikely to seek new curbs on cheap steel imports

REUTERS
New Delhi, October 7

THE STEEL MINISTRY is unlikely to push for any new measures to curb cheap imports in the near term, turning down a request from domestic steelmakers, according to a government source.

India, the world's second-biggest crude steel producer, was a net importer of finished steel in April-August, shipping in 3.5 million tonne of the alloy, up 29.5% from a year ago. China accounted for 31.8% of imports, making it the top exporter of finished steel to India in the period.

India launched an anti-dumping probe into hot-rolled steel imports from China, Japan and Russia in June. New Delhi had last December imposed import tariffs, locally known as a safeguard duty, on some grades for three years.

There has been a surge in imports despite the measure.

DUTY DILEMMA

■ India, the world's second-biggest crude steel producer, was a net importer of finished steel in April-August

■ Finished steel imports rose 29.5% to 3.5 MT in Apr-Aug

■ China accounted for 31.8% of India's steel imports

■ Mills sought safeguard duty hike from current 11.5% to above 20%, but government source says no hike planned

Last week, the steel secretary said imports were a challenge.

An analyst said there was a petition from a steel mill to raise the safeguard duty above 20% from the current 11.5%.

But the government source said no hike was planned at present because steel prices were already high. The source spoke on condition of anonymity because the import policy is confidential. The steel ministry did not respond to a request for comment.

Recently, mills lifted prices on the back of rising prices of coking coal, a key raw material, and a strong demand revival after the monsoon rains.

Demand from infrastructure and automobiles has been rising, industry executives said. Domestic automobile sales rose 31.82% year-on-year in September, driven by strong demand for two-wheelers and passenger vehicles, an auto dealers' body said on Tuesday.

NARAYANAN V
Chennai, October 7

THE INSURANCE REGULATORY and Development Authority of India's (Irdai) proposed distribution reforms could significantly lower motor insurance premiums for new vehicles and widen consumer choice by reducing the dominance of vehicle dealers, original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) and their affiliated brokers in the segment, industry experts said.

The proposed changes could allow new vehicle buyers to compare insurance products and prices rather than being tied to policies offered by dealers. They could also put pressure on the high commissions currently paid to dealers and OEM-linked brokers.

Animesh Das, MD and chief executive of direct-to-consumer insurer ACKO General Insurance, said the reforms would allow customers to shop around for insurance instead of being pushed towards a particular product by the vehicle dealer.

BUYERS CALL THE SHOTS

■ Proposed reforms may allow new vehicle buyers to compare insurance products and prices instead of being pushed towards policies offered by dealers

■ Move could put curbs on high commissions earned by dealers and OEM-linked brokers

■ OEM-linked brokers, dealers handle 46% of motor premium

"Customers will have more options and flexibility to go out and check products in the market instead of being stuck with a particular OEM dealer at the time of buying a car," Das said.

For instance, a customer buying a ₹10-lakh car could pay around ₹78,000 towards insurance, of which the dealer could earn ₹40,000-50,000 as commission, Das said.

Irdai's consultation paper on distribution reforms showed that motor insurance has among the highest commission payouts across lines of business, despite a significant portion of the premium comprising mandatory third-party liability cover, for which premiums are regulated.

In the new-vehicle category, a relatively low-effort product because third-party insurance is mandatory, average commission rates ranged between 17% and 40%. Maximum commission rates ranged from 24-75%.

"The product is mandatory. When you are buying a car, you have to buy motor insurance. In that case, the effort that the dealer is putting in to provide that product is negligible," Das said.

■ Motor commissions jumped 259% between FY23 and FY25

■ New-vehicle insurance commissions have averaged 17-40%

Between FY23 and FY25, motor insurance premiums grew around 34%, while motor commissions jumped around 259%, prompting the regulator to tighten norms for the sector. According to Das, high commissions had created an incentive for dealers to steer customers towards insurance products sold through their own channels.

"Dealers often arm-twist customers into buying insurance from them because they get a hefty incentive out of it. With this reform, the dealer will have negligible incentive for these activities," he said.

The impact could be particularly significant because OEM brokers and dealers, classified as Motor Insurance Service Providers (MISPs), account for around 46% of total motor insurance premium. The average commission paid to them ranges between 15% and 40%, while the maximum commission ranges from 24% to 75%, according to Irdai.

Under the proposed caps, a dealer registered as an insurance distribution entity (IDE) would earn no commission on third-party cover, against the previous average of 22%, and 5% on own-damage cover for a new vehicle, against an earlier average of 26%.

"This would materially improve customer choice because the buyer is no longer dependent on the dealer for both the vehicle and the insurance. It also brings competition into a part of the market where the distribution cost has historically been very high," the chief executive of a private general insurer said.

NTPC zeroes in on 3 sites for 12 GW nuclear capacity

● Basai, Banka and Nabarangpur likely locations

SAURAV ANAND
New Delhi, October 7

NTPC IS CLOSE to identifying three locations that could each host 2,000-4,000 MW of nuclear capacity, potentially creating a 6-12 GW project pipeline, as the power major steps up discussions with global reactor suppliers on technology transfer and assesses fuel requirements for its ambitious nuclear expansion, a source said.

The locations under consideration are Basai in Madhya Pradesh, Banka in Bihar and Nabarangpur in Odisha. Assessment of these three sites has progressed ahead of other locations being studied by the company, the source said.

The company is simultaneously evaluating technologies from global nuclear players, including France's EDF, Russia's Rosatom and US-based Westinghouse and Holtec. Technology transfer and localisation are expected to be key considerations in selecting partners.

Asked whether international reactor suppliers were willing to transfer technology, the source responded in the affirmative, while indicating that suppliers could be selective about the technology they make available. "We will try."

Fuel availability will also be a key consideration in the project and technology assessment. NTPC is examining the fuel requirements for the three prospective locations and the sourcing route, while nuclear fuel arrangements would remain within the government framework, the source said. The assessment comes as the utility evaluates different reactor technologies alongside their operating and fuel requirements.

The move gives shape to NTPC's plan to contribute around 30 GW to India's targeted 100 GW of nuclear capacity by 2047. At its 50th annual general meeting in August, the company said studies and discussions were progressing for 34 additional sites across 13 states, while its immediate focus remains the 2.8-GW Mahi Banswara project in Rajasthan.

NTPC has set up NTPC Parmanu Urja Nigam as its wholly owned nuclear subsidiary. Mahi Banswara, comprising four 700-MW units, is being developed through Anushakti Vidhyut Nigam, its joint venture with NPCIL.

RIL drives Venezuela oil imports to 7-yr high

INDIA'S IMPORTS OF Venezuelan oil are set to surge to the highest level in almost seven years this month, as steep discounts lure refiners such as Reliance Industries while Russian supplies become costlier.

Venezuelan crude deliveries to India are expected to more than double to about 465,000 barrels a day this month, from 196,000 in September, according to Kpler estimate. If all scheduled cargoes arrive on time, that would be the highest since December 2019.

All the South American producer's cargoes bound for India list Sikka as their destination, the port used by Reliance for its Jamnagar refinery complex. Actual October flows could vary, with at least two tankers scheduled to arrive on India's west coast on October 31, ship tracking data from the analytics firm show.

A Reliance spokesperson didn't immediately respond to a request for comment.

India resumed buying Venezuelan oil in February after an almost year-long pause, as the lifting of US sanctions following the ouster of former leader Nicolas Maduro boosted flows. At the same time, imports from Russia, India's biggest crude supplier, are declining as prices rise, with its flagship Urals grade loaded in the Baltic hitting a wartime high.

Refiners in the South Asian nation are also cutting back Russian purchases after a sweeping US sanctions law raised the threat of fresh punitive tariffs. Moscow's share in India's crude imports fell to about 35% in September, from as high as 56% in July, according to Kpler data. BLOOMBERG

MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF OF THE AIR STAFF

AMAR PREET SINGH
Air Chief Marshal

On the occasion of the 94th Air Force Day, I extend my heartfelt greetings to the people of our great nation. Your trust and unwavering support remain our greatest sources of strength.

The Indian Air Force has evolved from its modest beginnings in 1932 into a modern, networked and a formidable force, shaped by generations of Air Warriors who have served with courage, professionalism and sacrifice.

As the strategic environment becomes increasingly complex and contested, one lesson remains clear: Air power is a decisive instrument of national power. Its speed, reach, flexibility and precision allow for rapid response and significant effects across the battlespace.

Operation Sindoor reaffirmed this reality as we integrated platforms, sensors, weapons and command-and-control into a coherent combat architecture that yielded decisive outcomes.

Our responsibility extends beyond the battlespace. Indian Air Force not only strikes but also saves. In times of disaster or humanitarian crisis, we have responded with speed, reliability and compassion thereby demonstrating that service to the nation and humanity, is central to our ethos.

For us, readiness is a permanent state of being, not a posture assumed during crisis. Our Air Warriors remain prepared 24/7 to respond whenever the nation calls. As we look ahead, our focus remains on building a resilient, integrated and future-ready force and we continue to prioritize combined operational effect over individual platform strength.

On this solemn occasion, we honor the bravehearts who made the supreme sacrifice and I pay my deepest respect to our Air Veterans, whose experience and wisdom continue to inspire us. As the Indian Air Force enters its 95th year, we move forward with pride, confidence and clarity; and continue to uphold our commitment to the nation's sovereignty, security, and integrity thus living up to the our theme:

“भारतीय वायु सेना – अचूक, अभेद्य एवं सटीक”

India's pursuit of indigenous air power is entering a more consequential phase. The story is no longer simply about developing one fighter aircraft; it is about creating an aerospace ecosystem capable of designing, producing, integrating and sustaining aircraft, engines, avionics, sensors, weapons and helicopters. The Indian Air Force (IAF), through its operational requirements, has become an important anchor for that ecosystem.

The LCA Tejas Mk1 remains the foundation of this journey. Conceived by the Aeronautical Development Agency and manufactured by Hindustan Aeronautics Limited (HAL), the fighter brought Indian design, flight-control, avionics and systems-integration capabilities into a frontline combat aircraft. Its evolution into the Mk1A is now taking the programme further, with enhanced avionics, electronic-warfare capabilities and an AESA radar. HAL has also expanded production, including a third LCA production line at Nashik.

An often-overlooked part of this story is training. In September 2026, HAL handed over the final two LCA FOC twin-seat trainers to the IAF, giving the service an indigenous training variant closely related to its frontline fighter. The aircraft are intended to provide pilots with a training pathway into Tejas operations.

Parallel to this is the HTT-40, India's indigenously designed basic trainer. HAL describes it as a tandem-seat, fully aerobatic aircraft equipped with a glass cockpit and an indigenous avionics suite. A second production line for the trainer was inaugurated at Nashik in 2025, underlining the importance of building an indigenous training pipeline alongside combat aircraft production.

The ecosystem extends well beyond airframes. DRDO-developed technologies include radar, electronic warfare, mission computers and life-support systems, while the Astra beyond-visual-range missile has been test-fired from Tejas Mk1, demonstrating the growing integration of Indian aircraft and weapons.

Helicopters add another dimension. HAL's portfolio spans the Dhruv family, Rudra, LCH Prachand and LUH, giving India experience across utility, armed and combat helicopter categories.

Yet indigenous air power is still a work in progress. Tejas continues to rely on imported propulsion, while production speed and supply-chain capacity remain important challenges.

The larger achievement, therefore, is the emergence of a connected industrial base. The IAF is not merely receiving Indian-made aircraft; its requirements are helping create markets for Indian designers, manufacturers, MSMEs and technology developers. The next test will be whether this ecosystem can move from individual programmes to sustained, globally competitive aerospace capability.

“As the Indian Air Force marks 94 years of distinguished service to the nation, we salute the dedication, professionalism and courage of its personnel. For over seven decades, Thales has been proud to support this journey through advanced technologies, local partnerships and a growing contribution to ‘Make in India’. Together with the Indian Air Force and local defence industry, we look forward to contributing to the development of future-ready capabilities that strengthen the nation's air power.”

Ankur Kanaglekar, Vice President - India, Thales

“It is a great honor for us to congratulate the Indian Air Force on its 94th anniversary! India is a long-standing strategic partner of Russia, and we are proud that our aircraft have been in service with the Indian Air Force for decades, forming the backbone of the fleet. Russian aircraft account for the largest share of the Indian Air Force's inventory, numbering around 400.

For instance, MiG has been organizing the production and modernization of defense products for over 50 years. Su-30MKI fighter jets are successfully assembled in India as part of an industrial partnership. This is not a recent trend but an established practice dating back to the 1960s, when licensed production of the MiG-21 fighter was launched in India. In other words, Russia has been building a strategic partnership with India within the framework of the “Make in India” concept for more than half a century. We also see prospects for collaboration on new projects, including fifth-generation aircraft.”

Vadim Badelkha,
CEO, United Aircraft
Corporation

“Lockheed Martin is proud of its longstanding partnership of seven decades with the Indian Armed Forces. We congratulate the Indian Air Force (IAF) on its 94th anniversary and remain steadfast in our commitment of being the partner of choice in its modernization journey. It has been our privilege to continue working with the IAF and supporting its fleet of 12 C-130J-30 Super Hercules aircraft. We are focused to further grow and strengthen this partnership with India as part of our unprecedented MTA offering for the Indian Air Force.”

Michael Fernandez, Country Head, Lockheed Martin India

Beyond the Fighter: Can India Build the Technologies of Tomorrow's Air Power?

India's aerospace ambition is entering a decisive phase. The next challenge is no longer simply to manufacture more aircraft, but to master the technologies that will define future air combat, stealth, autonomous systems, artificial intelligence, advanced propulsion, sensors and software-driven avionics.

At the centre of this effort is the Advanced Medium Combat Aircraft (AMCA), India's planned fifth-generation fighter. Its development is intended to bring together stealth, advanced avionics, electronic warfare, internal weapons carriage and network-centric capabilities. More importantly, the programme is being structured to draw private industry into prototype development, potentially widening India's high-end aerospace industrial base.

The future battlefield, however, will not belong to fighters alone. Defence Research and Development Organisation's (DRDO) technology roadmap includes autonomous navigation, computer vision, autonomous target identification, edge AI and manned-unmanned teaming. Its work on autonomous UAVs and swarm technologies points towards an air force increasingly built around networks of crewed and uncrewed platforms rather than individual aircraft.

Propulsion remains a critical frontier. The Council of Scientific & Industrial Research (CSIR) and National Aerospace Laboratories (NAL) has developed the NJ-100 small gas-turbine engine for applications including tactical UAVs and compact cruise missiles, while its NJ-5 has already reached flight-tested, production-ready status for micro-UAV applications. These developments demonstrate progress in technologies ranging from high-speed turbomachinery to miniature combustion systems.

The larger challenge is turning individual breakthroughs into an integrated technology ecosystem. India will need sustained investment in advanced materials, semiconductor technologies, sensors, secure communications, flight software, AI computing and above all high-performance aircraft engines.

AMCA can become more than another fighter programme. It can become the platform around which India develops the industrial and technological capabilities needed to move from a major defence manufacturer to a global aerospace technology power.

Embraer and Mahindra are eyeing Nagpur for a potential C-390 assembly line depending on the Medium Transport Aircraft program.

“MBDA views India as a cornerstone of our global industrial strategy. While our history was built on a supplier-customer relationship, our future is about synergy.

We are transitioning into a partnership of equals, focusing on co-development and co-production to drive innovation together.”

Ludovic Dumont, General Delegate, MBDA India

“Embraer proudly joins the nation in celebrating Indian Air Force Day. We salute the courage, professionalism and excellence of the men and women of the Indian Air Force, who stand ready every day to protect India's skies and support the nation. We are honoured to be part of the IAF's journey through programmes such as Netra Airborne Early Warning & Control (AEW&C) Systems and look forward to continuing our partnership in advancing India's aerospace capabilities.”

Bosco da Costa Junior, President and CEO of Embraer Defense & Security

“The United Engine Corporation of the Rostec State Corporation has a wide range of power units. UEC products are aimed at both the domestic market and foreign markets. The Corporation is actively developing cooperation with India. We have been working with our colleagues to master engine production for over 50 years.

At international exhibitions in India, UEC has repeatedly demonstrated its advanced developments – the PD-8 for short-haul Superjet aircraft, the TV7-117ST-01 for regional Il-114-300, and the VK-650V for light helicopters. The range of engines certified in Russia also includes the serial PD-14 for the medium-haul MC-21.

We can see great potential in the development of civilian programs, especially given the discussion of projects to localize Russian aircraft in India. The issue is at an early stage of discussion, but we are ready to consider various formats of cooperation for the localization of the latest engines with the involvement of industrial partners in India, including in the format of joint ventures.”

Andrey Tereshkiuk, Deputy General Director for Sales and Service, UEC

IAF pushes indigenous engines, faster fighter inductions amid squadron shortage

The Indian Air Force is pushing for faster development of indigenous fighter engines while also seeking quicker aircraft inductions to address a persistent shortage of fighter squadrons.

At his annual press conference ahead of Air Force Day, Air Chief Marshal A.P. Singh stressed that building a domestic aerospace ecosystem, including indigenous propulsion, is essential for India's long-term self-reliance.

Responding to media queries, he said engine development would take time and require sustained national effort. And described indigenous programmes as critical to creating a foundation for future combat aircraft. The IAF has also been supporting efforts to integrate Indian weapons and systems onto its platforms.

The immediate concern, however, remains the shrinking fighter fleet. According to the chief, delays in aircraft induction were hurting the force, particularly following the retirement of MiG-21s.

The IAF needs to induct around 36-40 fighter aircraft annually over the next few years to arrest the decline and eventually move towards its sanctioned strength of 42 squadrons.

Drones Are Changing the Indian Air Force

- BETTER SURVEILLANCE
- PRECISION STRIKES
- ENHANCED FORCE MULTIPLIER
- NETWORKED OPERATIONS
- GREATER SELF-RELIANCE

The Indian Air Force's drone fleet is evolving from a supporting surveillance tool into an increasingly important element of modern air power.

The experience of recent conflicts has shown that drones can provide persistent surveillance, precision-strike options and new ways of conducting warfare. For the IAF, therefore, the drone is no longer simply an aircraft without a pilot, it is becoming a key part of how India intends to see, target and fight in the skies of the future.

Israeli-origin Searcher II and Heron UAVs have been used for years for reconnaissance, while the IAF has also inducted four Heron Mk II medium-altitude, long-endurance drones.

The Heron Mk II can remain airborne for up to 45 hours and is equipped for long-range observation, electronic intelligence and communications-related missions.

India's bigger challenge, however, is building its own high-end unmanned systems. Defence Research and Development Organisation's (DRDO) TAPAS-BH-201, earlier known as Rustom-II, was conceived as an indigenous MALE drone for intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance. It has completed extensive flight testing, but struggled to meet the armed forces' original requirement of operating at 30,000 feet for more than 24 hours. DRDO has continued work on improving the platform rather than abandoning the broader effort to develop indigenous MALE UAV technology.

The next step is potentially more ambitious. DRDO's Archer-NG is being developed as an armed unmanned platform capable of carrying weapons, while India is also exploring larger combat and high-altitude unmanned systems.

“India is one of Russia's closest partners. Cooperation between our countries is strategic and strengthens every year.

Russian-Indian technological cooperation in the field of combat aviation began in the 1960s. Since then, India has successfully mastered production of various Russian aircraft, including the Su-30MKI fighter jet, which today forms the backbone of the Indian Air Force.

This 60-year partnership has demonstrated Russia's reliability and openness to technology transfer. This successful experience will significantly facilitate the implementation of new joint initiatives in full compliance with the Make in India program.

Today, Rosoboronexport is proposing cooperation on a number of promising projects, including aircraft manufacturing, which will enable the Indian Air Force to secure a long-term strategic advantage in the region and significantly strengthen the country's defense capability.

I sincerely congratulate the Indian Air Force on this holiday!”

Alexander Mikheev, Director General of Rosoboronexport

JIO MAY NEED A PUSH TOWARDS POSTPAID TO CLOSE GAP WITH AIRTEL

Premium users telecom's new Arpu battleground

URVI MALVANIA
Mumbai, October 7

TELECOM OPERATORS ARE increasingly turning to customer segmentation and premium benefits to lift average revenue per user (Arpu), as the industry is looking to extract more value from existing subscribers rather than relying solely on another broad-based tariff increase.

The shift is significant for Reliance Jio, which has seen its Arpu growth trail Bharti Airtel even as it continues to add subscribers. In the April-June quarter, Jio's subscriber base grew 1.7% sequentially, while its Arpu rose 0.75%. Airtel, by comparison, reported 0.88% growth in subscribers and a 2.75% sequential increase in Arpu.

The divergence is pushing operators to focus more closely on high-value customers, particularly in the postpaid segment, where users are generally less price-sensitive and more receptive to bundled services. With Jio also inching closer to its proposed IPO, improving monetisation from its large subscriber base is likely to assume greater importance.

"The battle for premium customers is heating up evidently. In the absence of headline tariff hikes, both Vodafone Idea and Airtel have found ways to raise their Arpu by incentivising upgrades to premium plans," an analyst said.

Jio has the smallest share of postpaid users among the three major private operators, according to analysts. This gives Airtel and Vodafone Idea greater scope to target customers who are willing to pay more for additional services, including international roaming, family benefits and other bundled offerings.

"In a way, it has allowed both Airtel and Vodafone Idea to effectively take headline tariff hikes in the premium postpaid segment, without needing plans providing up to three international trips a year across more than 170 countries.

The distinction is important because Vi is allowing existing customers to retain their current plans if they do not need international roaming. This gives the operator a way to target premium users without imposing a uniform increase across its subscriber base.

"For Vi, it not only helped present an industry first proposition, but the fact that it still allows people to stay on the older plans if international roaming is not a requirement, could help protect its existing base," Pareekh Jain, founder and CEO at EIIRTrend, told FE.

AI likely the next big leg of growth for Indian IT: KKR

RAGHAVENDRA KAMATH
Mumbai, October 7

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE (AI) could become the next leg of growth for India's information technology (IT) sector rather than a source of disruption, according to a latest report by global investment firm KKR.

"We would push back on the view that AI is a threat to Indian IT. Our sense from the road is the opposite. As these IT companies embed AI into their service delivery systems, we think it is likely to become the next leg of growth rather than only a source of disruption," said Henry McVey, head of global macro & asset allocation and CIO of KKR's balance sheet, in his Thoughts from the Road report published on Wednesday.

Global capability centres (GCCs) are increasingly taking the baton from traditional IT services as an important growth engine, he said.

Further, he said India remains one of the "clearest examples" of how patient, structural reform can pay off over a decade rather than a quarter.

McVey said that since 2014, the reform agenda, including GST simplification, the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, labour market formalisation and a sustained infrastructure buildout, has quietly reset the country's growth ceiling.

The economy has now crossed $4 trillion, and "we think it is on track to double again over the next ten years," he said.

"Importantly, we do not see this as a story that has run its course. There is still meaningful upside to be unlocked from reforms already on the books, not just from new ones yet to come," McVey said.

The consumer upgrade thesis remains one of their strongest structural views on the country, although we acknowledge a near-term pause while oil remains around $100, he said.

"What stands out to us, however, is how differently New Delhi has managed this shock compared to many of its emerging market peers. Rather than allowing energy inflation to flow directly into household budgets, government policy has done a good job of shielding the consumer, which should continue to help limit the impact on discretionary spending relative to prior oil shocks," McVey added.

Kiko Milano to step up India footprint

VIVEAT SUSAN PINTO
Mumbai, October 7

ITALIAN BEAUTY AND COSMETICS brand Kiko Milano expects India to become one of its top five global markets over the next decade as it accelerates expansion under its partnership with Reliance Retail Ventures' subsidiary Reliance Beauty and Personal Care (RBPLC).

Kiko Milano's India operations are held under Kiko Cosmetics Retail, a wholly owned entity managed by RBPLC. The brand currently has 20 points of sale, including 11 standalone stores and nine outlets through Reliance's beauty platform Tira. It opened its 11th store at Jio World Drive mall in Mumbai's Bandra-Kurla Complex on Wednesday.

Kiko plans to double its India retail footprint by the end of 2026, CEO Simone Dominici said in an interaction with FE on the sidelines of the store launch.

"Indian consumers are conscious of beauty trends. They want the best when it comes to beauty and make-up,"

Dominici said. "Millennials and Gen Z, in particular, are savvy online consumers who know exactly what they want and where they can get it."

Kiko entered India in 2019 but stepped up expansion after partnering with Reliance in 2024. The companies began reopening stores together in 2025. The brand now has a physical presence across eight cities—Mumbai, Delhi/NCR, Pune, Lucknow, Kochi, Hyderabad, Bengaluru and Ahmedabad—and also sells through Reliance's online ecosystem.

"The beauty of the partnership is that it gives us an omnichannel platform," he said. "You can explore the brand online, get in touch with the brand through a beauty specialist like Tira, and come to our stores for the full experience."

Kiko expects India to enter its top 15 markets by 2027, move into the top 10 in 2028-30 and potentially become a top-five market by 2033-35.

India Inc to report strong earnings despite inflation, cost pressure

RESULTS PREVIEW

Robust revenue to help firms report good profit in Q2

KISHOR KADAM
Mumbai, October 7

INDIA INC IS expected to report strong numbers for the September quarter earnings season on the back of strong consumption trends, robust credit growth, elevated prices of metals and a boost to exporters from the sharp depreciation in the currency. Inflation in raw materials has been a bugbear but a good many companies have exhibited pricing power. A later festive season this year would have impacted consumer-oriented businesses; their numbers would not be strictly comparable. Among the sectors that have not fared so well would be IT services.

The season kicks off on Thursday with numbers from Tata Consultancy Services, the country's biggest software services firm. Kotak Institutional Equities estimates adjusted net profits for the Nifty 50 universe could go up by 21% year-on-year (y-o-y) in Q2FY27, on the back of a jump in revenues of nearly 22% and an increase in Ebitda (earnings before interest, depreciation, tax and amortisation) of 21% y-o-y. At the start of the season, the firm pegs the earnings for the Nifty 50 index at ₹1,227 for FY27.

Auto firms could turn out to be the star performers this season going by the strong volume growth — more than 20% — reported for the quarter.

The GST rate revisions, effective in late September 2025, which resulted in hefty price cuts, continue to drive demand. That should help push up revenues as would increases in the average selling prices (ASP) taken by manufacturers. Companies that have been able to sell a better product mix would do better. However, higher commodity costs could take the sheen off operating profit margins. Exporting firms would also gain from the weaker rupee.

Going by the advance estimates, loan growth at both banks and shadow lenders continues to remain strong at 12-14% y-o-y. Stable lending yields should help drive up top lines though non-interest income may be hit by lower treasury incomes. Net interest margins are expected to stay flat or contract slightly on a sequential basis; this would vary across lenders depending on the quantum of FCNR (B) deposits mobilised. Overall, the industry should report low-double-digit earnings growth.

The consumer staples pack should deliver double-digit revenue growth, on the back of price hikes, stable demand and, for some, a helpful base. Volumes are estimated to have increased by anywhere between 7 and 10% y-o-y. Gross margins for several firms could, however, contract, thanks to inflation in commodities; some of this impact would be offset by the price hikes taken. While companies should report good operating profits, spends on A&P and the extent of leverage would influence the numbers.

The consumer durables space is also expected to post good revenue growth benefiting from better pricing despite subdued volumes. The numbers would not be strictly comparable as last year, the festive season set in early. Analysts believe there may have been some pre-buying in white goods ahead of the festive season though that might not be meaningful. Inflation in raw materials could impact gross margins leaving operating margins flat or only slightly better. At apparel retailers, the performance would be mixed, driven by store additions and price increases; same-store metrics may not be impressive for all chains. Value fashion players are believed to have done better in a highly competitive environment. The later festive season and high competitive intensity are likely to have impacted growth despite a weak base.

It should be another dull quarter for the IT sector given discretionary demand remains relatively subdued with no meaningful improvement. The AI deflation is now becoming more apparent, say analysts and visible in the base business. As such, revenues could remain flat or rise very marginally while margins for the top tier companies are expected to stay stable or contract on a year-on-year basis. The rupee depreciation will help cushion some of the impact of a weak pricing environment. The mid-tier firms should report better numbers than their bigger peers.

Demand for cement is estimated to have risen by about 9-10% y-o-y in Q2 reflecting reasonably good volume growth for the sector. Prices too have been stable across the country — adjusting for the GST rate cuts. Despite prices having been a tad weak in some areas, in the east and south, blended realisations should be flat or marginally higher. However, higher fuel and freight costs may have eaten into margins.

Starlink's India launch awaits final clearances

OJASVI GUPTA
New Delhi, October 7

STARLINK HAS COMPLETED the infrastructure and operational preparations needed to launch its satellite broadband services in India and is now awaiting the government's final clearances, including security and foreign-investment approvals, a senior SpaceX executive said on Tuesday.

"We are standing ready to serve India once India is ready. We're ready to work with the government. We are ready to work with operators and with industry to this end," Lauren Dreyer, vice-president, Starlink business operations, SpaceX, said at the India Mobile Congress.

The company has established around 20 ground stations with hundreds of antennas as part of its India operations, Dreyer said. It has also structured its Indian operations to meet domestic security requirements, including ensuring that subscriber data remains within the country.

"We've built our Starlink operations specifically for

VP, STARLINK BUSINESS OPERATIONS, SPACEX

Starlink has already secured the Global Mobile Personal Communication by Satellite (GMPCS) licence and authorisation from the Indian National Space Promotion and Authorisation Centre (IN-SPaC). It is among three companies to have received satellite communication licences in the country, along with Eutelsat OneWeb and Jio Satellite Communications.

However, satellite operators also require spectrum allocation and security clearance before they can commercially offer services. Starlink is still awaiting security and foreign-investment approvals, leaving the company unable to begin its India rollout despite having built much of the required infrastructure.

The approval process had faced delays earlier this year after concerns were raised by agencies under the home ministry over how Starlink would respond if foreign governments made competing demands on the company during a crisis. Starlink had rejected such reports as unfounded, while maintaining that discussions with the government were continuing.

Dreyer's comments at the industry event appear aimed at underlining the company's preparedness to meet the regulatory and security requirements.

Ericsson to start India-made antenna exports to Europe

OJASVI GUPTA
New Delhi, October 7

SWEDISH GEAR MAKER Ericsson will ship the antennas made in India to Europe and other markets, a senior executive said on Wednesday.

"Ericsson already makes 4G and 5G equipment in the country and now exports from it as well. We also produce the antennas that are being used for massive MIMO and artificial intelligence (AI) introduction in India. And we not only produce for India, but we also export from India," Andres Vicente, chief executive for Southeast Asia, Oceania and India, Ericsson, said in a media briefing.

The company seeks to transition local telecom operators into a supply hub for its global network business. It has built more than 15,000 radio antennas and 25 million components in India since July 2025.

"Producing more than 15,000 antennas in India is an important milestone and is a step in a much longer journey," said Mikael Eriksson, head of Ericsson Antenna System. He said the company is building an end-to-end ecosystem that combines local sourcing and manufacturing with its global engineering.

The company currently manufactures antennas as well as radio equipment locally. For exporting, the products need to be configured to meet different spectrum and technical requirements across markets. This is because radio equipment requires specific applications for individual markets, which is different from exporting from a single manufacturing base.

"The problem with exporting radios is that the spectrum is very different for every country," Vicente said.

India is also Ericsson's biggest base of staff. It has about 22,000 employees, of whom roughly 2,200 work on research and development.

DEAL MARKS ITS FORAY INTO LOGISTICS REAL ESTATE IN INDIA

Brookfield inks ₹4.3K-cr deal for ESR warehouse portfolio

RAGHAVENDRA KAMATH
Mumbai, October 7

CANADIAN INVESTOR BROOKFIELD on Wednesday said it has acquired 10.5 million square feet portfolio from ESR India, committing ₹4,300 crore for the acquisition and future development. The deal marks its foray into industrial and logistics real estate in the country. ESR will continue to manage the properties for the near term, Brookfield said.

The deal will make Brookfield the third largest logistics real estate player by size after Indospace and Blackstone-promoted Horizon Industrial Parks, sector experts said.

Blackstone, GIC, Prologis, Indospace also reportedly bid for the ESR India portfolio but Brookfield emerged as the highest bidder.

Spread across nearly 400 acres in six metro clusters, the ESR India portfolio includes eight Grade A parks, serving major gateway cities including Mumbai, Pune, Delhi NCR, Chennai and Kolkata.

The operating portfolio is nearly 98% leased and serves a diversified mix of

The Canadian firm, on July 30 announced the launch of Lumara, a renewable energy platform in the country that will deploy nearly $600 million. It recently invested a similar amount in ACME's green molecule projects.

Ankur Gupta, deputy chief

Abhijit Malkanim, India CEO at ESR, said, "Brookfield's acquisition of the portfolio underscores the value created through ESR's integrated platform and the strength of Brookfield has a portfolio of over $13 billion across office and hospitality, including Brookfield India Real Estate Trust, and the Leela Palaces Hotels and Resorts. CoreWeave inks Adani deal for India data centre foray

DINA BASS
October 7

AI CLOUD-COMPUTING PROVIDER CoreWeave is continuing the expansion in Asia with its first data centres in India, part of a venture involving conglomerate Adani Group.

CoreWeave will use 240 megawatts of capacity at AdaniConneX's Talaja campus in Navi Mumbai, with an option to double that amount, the company said in a statement Wednesday. AdaniConneX is a joint venture of Adani Group and EdgeConneX.

CoreWeave is also setting up an office in India. The investment is expected to be in billions of dollars over the lifetime of the project, with the first data centres slated to come online in mid-2028.

CoreWeave, based in Livingston, New Jersey, has been expanding geographically in order to boost available capacity and better serve global customers.

In August, it announced its first foray into Asia with projects in Indonesia.

The company said that month that it had about 4.2 gigawatts' worth of contracted power — roughly equivalent to the output of four nuclear reactors. But with demand remaining high, Chief Executive Officer Mike Intrator said last month that the company is "largely sold out" of capacity. Energy availability,

Navi Mumbai airport ramps up cargo ops

AKBAR MERCHANT
Mumbai, October 7

NAVI MUMBAI INTERNATIONAL Airport (NMIA) has commenced ramping up its cargo handling capacity by increasing manpower after a section of airlines, customs brokers and freight agents expressed concern over its preparedness with increasing air cargo traffic amidst the geopolitical conflicts.

Sources tell FE that, the airport has begun updating its workforce with experienced personnel, strengthening customer support and addressing system-related issues to improve cargo turnaround times for especially for freighter aircraft.

Acknowledging the concerns, sources tell FE that Suresh Nair, head of cargo at NMIA, informed customs brokers that corrective measures were being implemented to reduce delays and improve cargo handling.

Meanwhile, the International Air Transport Association (IATA) has welcomed the Ministry of Civil Aviation's intervention to defer the proposed reduction in capacity at Mumbai's Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj International Airport (CSIA), calling for a collaborative approach to the redevelopment of Terminal 1 (T1).

Tier-2, smaller cities to drive alcobev premiumisation

ASHUTOSH MISHRA
New Delhi, October 7

TIER-2 CITIES and smaller markets are expected to drive the next phase of premiumisation in alcoholic beverages industry as growth in larger cities begins to saturate, according to Sanjit Padhi, CEO of the International Spirits and Wines Association of India (ISWAI).

"Tier-1 cities are already saturated," Padhi told FE in an interaction on Wednesday, adding that wider availability and more accessible pricing would encourage consumers in smaller markets to move towards premium products.

The shift is already visible in the growth of premium products, with the segment expanding at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 10.2% between 2022 and 2025, significantly ahead of the cheap and regular segments, which grew at 1.1% and 1.4%, respectively, according to ISWAI's Economic Value of the Indian Alcoholic Beverage Industry 2026 report.

Premiumisation, Padhi said, essentially represents a shift from volume-led products to value-led products. This

HAPPY HOURS

■ Premium segment products expanded at a CAGR of 10.2% between 2022 and 2025

■ Indian alcoholic beverages market was estimated at ₹6.2 lakh cr in 2025

■ The industry generated an estimated ₹4 lakh cr in central, state tax in FY25 means the industry can increase its value and state revenues by encouraging consumers to upgrade to higher-priced products, without necessarily resulting in higher overall alcohol consumption.

The opportunity is particularly significant in smaller markets, where premium products have not yet achieved the availability and penetration seen in larger cities. Better distribution and more accessible price points could help consumers move up the product ladder, making smaller cities an important source of growth for the industry.

The domestic alcoholic beverages market was estimated at ₹6.2 lakh crore in calendar year 2025, equivalent to 1.8% of nominal GDP, the report said. The industry generated an estimated ₹4 lakh crore in central and state tax revenues in FY25, accounting for 6.6% of total tax collections and 11.3% of indirect tax collections.

Alcohol-related revenues contributed around 19% of states' own tax revenues across the 28 states and three Union Territories assessed, with the contribution exceeding 20% in several large states. This makes premiumisation particularly relevant for states looking to raise revenues without relying entirely on higher consumption or tax rates.

However, the industry said policy stability would be critical to expanding availability and attracting investment in retail and distribution. Padhi said states should provide greater visibility on taxation and licensing policies over a three-to-five-year period instead of frequently changing tax rates and regulatory conditions.

Air India, Singapore Airlines expand ties

AKBAR MERCHANT
Mumbai, October 7

AIR INDIA and Singapore Airlines (SIA) will expand their partnership from October 15 under the Commercial Cooperation Framework Agreement signed by the two airlines in January this year.

In the first phase, the expanded arrangement will cover 126 weekly flights between Singapore and eight Indian cities — Ahmedabad, Bengaluru, Chennai, Delhi, Hyderabad, Kochi, Kolkata and Mumbai.

Currently, an Air India-operated codeshare flight booked through SIA must be combined with an SIA-operated flight, and vice versa. From October 15, this requirement will be removed, allowing customers to book eligible flights operated by either airline on a standalone basis through the other carrier's booking channels.

The move is expected to provide passengers greater flexibility in choosing flights and itineraries between the two countries.

Eye on inflation, RBI shifts stance

Don't rush to deploy FCNR (B) funds, exercise prudence, gov tells banks

FE BUREAU
Mumbai, October 7

THE RESERVE BANK of India (RBI) has asked banks to exercise prudence while deploying the large pool of funds raised through foreign currency non-resident (bank), or FCNR(B) deposits, stressing the need for proper due diligence rather than rushing to put the money to use.

"We are already seeing the use of the FCNR(B) deposits, as evidenced by the high inflow rate. But, of course, the amount is so large, we do not want them out of the country," RBI Governor Sanjay Malhotra said at the post policy press conference.

Banks should take adequate time to deploy the funds while ensuring that proper checks are undertaken, he said. "They need to do their due diligence properly and take their time to use these deposits," Malhotra said, adding that banks can use the funds in the overnight market in the interim. The large mobilisation has also added to liquidity in the domestic banking system, raising the question of how quickly banks can deploy the funds without compromising underwriting standards.

The provisional numbers released by banks show that the large FCNR(B) mobilisation has provided a boost to their deposit base,

"They need to do their due diligence properly and take their time to use these deposits"

"The amount is so large, we do not want them out of the country"

- FCNR(B) mobilisation has provided a boost to banks' deposit base
- It has allowed some lenders to retire their bulk deposits
- Axis Bank has used a part of flows to cut non-retail term deposits
- HDFC Bank mobilised deposits equivalent to $11.5 billion
- How quickly banks can deploy funds is a key consideration allowing some lenders to retire their bulk deposits. Banks have also deployed a part of these funds through loans extended by their overseas branches against the FCNR(B) deposits.

Axis Bank mobilised $10.62 billion of FCNR(B) deposits under the RBI's swap facility as of September 30. The lender used a part of these flows to reduce its non-retail term deposits, which declined 8.6% sequentially during the quarter. At the same time, Axis Bank's overseas branches extended $4.57 billion of loans as leverage against the FCNR(B) deposits. The lender also issued standby letters of credit worth $4.69 billion to other banks against loans secured by these deposits.

HDFC Bank mobilised foreign currency deposits equivalent to $11.5 billion under the facility. Its overseas branches extended loans of $5.7 billion against these deposits, while the bank issued standby letters of credit aggregating $3.1 billion in relation to loans backed by the deposits. Kotak Mahindra Bank raised $5.78 billion of foreign currency deposits under the swap facility. Its international branches extended $1.68 billion of loans as leverage against these deposits.

IDFC FIRST Bank, meanwhile, mobilised $3.6 billion of FCNR(B) deposits, while its IFSC Banking Unit extended $2.6 billion of leverage to NRI customers.

The inflows also allowed IDFC FIRST Bank to slow its deposit mobilisation and reduce certificates of deposit as it managed the resulting surplus liquidity.

Rate increase can't check slide as rupee closes at 96.78

CHRISTINA TITUS
Mumbai, October 7

THE RUPEE WEAKENED to near its record low on Wednesday despite the Reserve Bank of India's 25-basis-point rate hike, as elevated crude oil prices, a strong dollar and persistent foreign portfolio outflows outweighed the impact of monetary tightening.

The currency closed at 96.78 against the dollar, down 34 paise from its previous close and within striking distance of its record low of 96.82 touched in May.

"The shift to 'calibrated tightening' signalled a less hawkish stance than markets had expected, suggesting that the rate-hike cycle is likely to be shallow. This has weighed on the rupee, as it is insufficient to support the currency," said Anil Kumar Bhansali, head of treasury at Finrex Treasury Advisors.

The rupee has declined 7.7% so far this calendar year, making it the worst-performing Asian currency.

"The market may be looking for stronger liquidity tightening or direct forex intervention rather than just a rate hike," said Kunal Sodhani, treasury head at Shinhan Bank.

Pressure on the currency has intensified amid crude oil prices above $100 a barrel, elevated global bond yields and continued foreign portfolio investor outflows. Oil prices rose 1.37% to $101.96 a barrel on Wednesday. Currency traders said the RBI likely intervened through dollar sales to contain excessive volatility.

Sodhani said the rate hike had largely been priced in, while a strong dollar, elevated crude prices, persistent FPI outflows and higher US yields continued to generate significant dollar demand.

"The weakening despite the rate hike and a tightening stance suggests that external factors are currently overpowering the positive impact of monetary policy," he said.

Market participants expect the rupee to trade in the 96-97 range in the near term.

FREE FALL

"Given that the RBI has revised its crude oil price assumption upward, it now expects inflation to remain elevated for longer. Higher crude prices would also translate into a larger import bill," said a dealer at a state-owned bank.

Asked about the rupee at the post-policy press conference, RBI Governor Sanjay Malhotra said markets could be "quite irrational" in the short run. "It is only in the long run that they are able to find the right value." The rupee may currently be undervalued, he said.

Meanwhile, government bond yields rose, with the benchmark 10-year yield climbing five basis points to 7.24%, its highest level in three years.

"Given that the policy outcome was largely in line with market expectations, we believe short-term rates are likely to remain stable, with adequate liquidity prevailing in the banking system. Long-term rates are likely to settle higher, with the 10-year G-sec expected to trade in the 7.20%-7.40% range," said Amit Somani, deputy head-fixed income at Tata Asset Management.

RBI's next rate hike will be of 50 bps: SBI economists

THE RBI WILL hike the key repo rate by a steeper 0.50% at the next monetary policy review in December, economists at State Bank of India said on Wednesday. The 0.25% hike along with a shift in the stance to "calibrated tightening" is a decisive policy message, they said.

"Given the steepening inflation trajectory currently underway, we believe that the December policy cycle could mostly deliver a jumbo 50 bps rate hike depending on the global conditions," they said in a note.

SBI said that global conditions are likely to turn more volatile soon, and getting the repo rate to 6% from the present 5.50% will be the best option.

Even before the policy review, many economists and watchers had been expecting two rate hikes of 0.25% each on Wednesday and at the December review.

The report also pitched for the country to have a clear artificial intelligence policy to facilitate capital flows to help the rupee.

"Without a clear policy, capital flow is unlikely. Thus, the need of the hour is to provide guardrails for the rupee that is effectively moving towards a dreaded benchmark now," it said.

Housing demand likely to face a test; impact on auto seen limited

RAGHAVENDRA KAMATH & AKBAR MERCHANT
Mumbai, October 7

THE RESERVE BANK OF India's 25-basis-point repo rate hike could put further pressure on housing affordability and delay purchase decisions, particularly in price-sensitive segments. However, it is not expected to spoil the fortunes of the automobile industry significantly.

The hike comes at a time when residential sales growth is already subdued across major markets. While sales in Mumbai edged higher, the National Capital Region saw a decline during the first nine months of 2026. Overall, housing sales across the top cities remained flat during the period.

Housing affordability under pressure

"Higher borrowing costs may temporarily moderate buyer sentiment, particularly in the mid-income segments," said Pradeep Aggarwal, founder and chairman, Signature Global. "Still, with strong fundamentals and the upcoming festive season, we expect the sector to remain resilient," Aggarwal said.

Anuj Puri, chairman, Anarock Property Consultants, said the rate hike could weigh on consumer sentiment and discretionary spending, with the festive season being a key period for housing demand. The impact could be amplified by the

AFFORDABILITY TO GET STRETCHED

■ Higher borrowing costs may temporarily moderate homebuyer sentiment

■ Sharp increase in residential prices in recent years has already stretched affordability

■ Impact could be intense in interest-rate-sensitive and lower-priced segments

■ Auto industry sees impact to be muted despite the sector's high dependence on financing

■ Rate hike unlikely to materially affect festive auto purchases, says an expert sharp increase in residential prices in recent years, which has already stretched affordability.

According to Anarock Research, average residential prices across the top seven cities rose 7% year-on-year. "With the rate hike, dearer home loans will make buyers more selective and cause decision timelines to extend, particularly in the price-sensitive segments," Puri said. Shishir Baijal, international partner, chairman and managing director, Knight Frank India, said higher borrowing costs could create affordability pressures, particularly in interest-rate-sensitive and lower-priced segments. "But we do not expect a material disruption to the sector's broader trajectory in the near future," he said.

Niranjan Hiranandani, MD,

Hiranandani Group, said real estate tends to perform well in a higher-inflation environment. "Real estate prices grow higher than general inflation," he said.

Subodh Runwal, chairman and managing director, Runwal Enterprises, expects little impact from the rate hike. "It is in line with global happenings," he said.

Housing finance companies, too, expect the increase in equated monthly instalments (EMIs) to be manageable and do not foresee a significant hit to festive demand.

"For the housing finance sector, the rate hike may lead to a gradual increase in borrowing costs, but the overall impact should remain manageable," said Sandeep Kumar, MD & CEO, LIC Housing Finance. Housing demand continues to be supported by rising incomes, urbanisation and a sustained preference for homeownership, he added.

Ajai Shukla, MD & CEO, PNB Housing Finance, said the impact on EMIs would be marginal. "An increase of this size is modest when set against the long-term value of owning a home, and the exact change will depend on each loan's benchmark and reset cycle," he said.

Marginal impact on auto industry

The automobile industry expects the impact to be more muted despite the sector's high dependence on financing.

Amar Seth, vice-president, FADA, said the increase in borrowing costs could have a marginal impact on demand, particularly as around 70% of vehicle purchases are financed. Higher interest rates would add to the effective cost of vehicle ownership, he said.

Two-wheeler industry expert Sanjay Tripathi, however, does not expect the rate hike to materially affect festive purchases, arguing that buying decisions during the period are driven more by consumer sentiment and income visibility than by marginal changes in EMIs.

"People buy automobiles based on overall income visibility, bonus payouts, cash flow, exchange and finance schemes," Tripathi said.

Future rate hikes to depend on evolving macro conditions: Malhotra

KSHIPRA PETKAR
Mumbai, October 7

THE RESERVE BANK of India (RBI) is keeping its options open on further monetary tightening. Governor Sanjay Malhotra said the depth of future rate hikes will depend on evolving macroeconomic conditions. In the post-policy press conference, the RBI top brass addressed concerns around inflation, liquidity, and credit growth.

Did the MPC consider a 50-basis-point rate hike? As inflation normalises, should we expect further recalibration of the real rate?

We discussed all possibilities and thereafter looked at what would be appropriate. By changing the stance, we have clarified that there is no rate cut being contemplated. It is either a pause or a rate hike. The extent of the rate hike will depend on evolving macroeconomic conditions and dynamics. Headline inflation is our target, and we continue to focus on bringing it to 4%. But headline inflation alone may not be the right measure, especially when much of the increase is because of base effects and supply-side factors.

Is a CRR hike off the table as a liquidity-management tool?

Nothing is off the table. I do not want to rule out anything because it is still an evolving and uncertain world. When we talk about whether an operation is cheaper or more expensive for the RBI, we need to look at the cost and benefits to the economy as a whole. The profit or surplus for the RBI is incidental.

Do you expect the introduction of MDR on certain UPI transactions to affect transaction volumes?

A decision on MDR has already been taken. As of now, we do not see any drop in volumes. I do not personally think that a small charge will have a major impact.

Has India's potential growth rate

RBI Governor Sanjay Malhotra (centre) with deputy governors in Mumbai on Wednesday increased? Does stronger growth also imply a higher neutral real interest rate?

Deputy Governor Poonam Gupta: If you look at the past few years, especially post-Covid, growth has been highly resilient to multiple global shocks and has co-existed with low and stable inflation. That indicates a high potential growth rate. Even in Q1, growth of 7.8% co-existed with very low inflation. While we do not have a specific estimate, indicators suggest that the underlying strength and potential of the economy have increased.

Are higher supply-side costs beginning to feed into broader inflation?

We have seen only a partial pass-through. Some of it is happening and some will happen. The extent will depend on the persistence of supply-side pressures. That is why we need to be data dependent going forward with respect to monetary policy.

Given that banks and NBFCs are having a good run on the credit growth fund, will this rate hike not dampen the loan demand?

DG Swaminathan: The credit growth has been at a decadal high at about 18-19%. But if you take a long-term average of 10 years, generally it is in the range of about 12-14%, which is very sustainable and very supportive of growth. It will take about a couple of quarters for transmission to materialise, so some moderation will occur related to demand as well as rate.

How concerned is the RBI about the impact of the weak monsoon on rural incomes and inflation?

Obviously, it has an impact, but the impact has moderated over the years. The resilience of the rural economy—both farm and non-farm—has increased because of measures taken on irrigation and other areas.

Why is the RBI setting up a technical consultative committee for financial markets?

DG Rohit Jain: Given the extreme volatility globally, and the need to have expert views better in a structured way, we are institutionalising this arrangement. The technical committee will meet periodically and provide inputs and suggestions. This should improve policymaking and give us a better understanding of operational issues faced by financial markets.

With ECL implementation six months away, how prepared are banks?

DG Shirish Chandra Murmu: The ECL framework was announced well in advance, so banks are well prepared. We are continuously in touch with banks. Whenever there are issues, they are being addressed. Our assessment is that the transition will be smooth. We are continuously monitoring implementation and are also conducting workshops.

One statement for all your money

● RBI ALLOWS BANK DEPOSITS JOIN CONSOLIDATED ACCOUNT STATEMENT

● CUSTOMERS FREE TO CHOOSE ANY ACCOUNT AGGREGATOR

SAIKAT NEOGI
New Delhi, October 7

CUSTOMERS WILL SOON be able to see their bank deposits, shares and mutual fund investments in a single statement, after the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Wednesday allowed bank deposit details to be included in the consolidated account statement (CAS) issued by entities registered with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi).

The central bank also made account aggregators (AAs) interoperable, so individuals can access and share their financial information through any account aggregator of their choice instead of being tied to one platform. Both measures are expected to be in place by December 31, 2026.

At present, depositories such as National Securities Depository (NSDL) and Central Depository Services (India) Ltd (CDSL) send CAS to investors with demat accounts, covering securities jay Malhotra said at the post-policy press conference. He said the aim is to make deposit information from all banks onboarded with any account aggregator available to customers through the CAS.

For customers, this means less juggling of bank apps, passbooks and investment statements to work out what they own. Those without demat accounts will also be able to get a consolidated view of their finances and share it through account aggregators.

The convenience extends to borrowing. With the customer's consent, banks and other lenders can access this consolidated information, which could make credit assessment and loan processing faster. "For financial institutions, a more consolidated view can also support smoother servicing and financial planning," said Santosh Agarwal, CEO of Paisabazaar, adding that interoperability could cut time, effort and operational costs.

C S Setty, chairman of State Bank of India, called the measures "important steps towards a more seamless, consent driven and integrated financial ecosystem."

Since the AA framework is consent-based, no information will be shared unless the customer explicitly authorises it. Experts said customers should be able to see clearly what is being shared, with whom and for what purpose, and should be able to withdraw consent easily.

"Clear rules on data handling, adequate security controls and a simple mechanism for raising complaints would be important to build trust as the system is rolled out," said Adhil Shetty, CEO of BankBazaar.

Shorter-term debt funds turn attractive post rate hike

KUSHAN SHAH
Mumbai, October 7

DEBT FUND MANAGERS are advising investors to favour short-to-medium duration funds after the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) raised the repo rate by 25 basis points on Wednesday, arguing that bond markets have already priced in a large part of the expected tightening cycle.

Fund managers expect another 50bps of rate hikes over the next few months, but believe much of the adjustment in yields has already taken place. This, they said, has made the two-to-four-year segment particularly attractive, with yields of around 7.8-8% offering healthy accrual without taking excessive duration risk.

Deepak Agrawal, CIO-debt, Kotak Mahindra AMC, said the rate hike was in line with expectations given the rise in inflation. He expects another 50 bps of hikes in FY27, considering global dynamics and average inflation of around 5-5.1% in FY28.

Agrawal recommended short-to-medium duration funds as the expected rate hikes are largely discounted in this segment. For investors with an investment horizon of 18 months or more, he also sees opportunities in long-duration funds, with yields on 30-40-year bonds reaching 7.9-8%.

Anurag Mittal, president & head-fixed income, UTI AMC, echoed the view, saying the market has already priced in up to

■ Mirae sees one more hike in December

■ Invesco sees another 2-3 rate hikes

100 bps of rate hikes and most of the adjustment in yields has taken place. He expects another 50-75 bps of hikes in the current cycle.

Mittal recommended funds with a duration of two to four years, including short-term and corporate bond funds. Current yields of 7.8-8% in these segments are attractive without exposing investors to meaningful duration risk, he said.

Basant Bafna, head-fixed income, Mirae Asset Mutual

Fund, said Wednesday's policy aligns the RBI with the global hawkish turn and represents an "insurance hike" aimed at reducing the need for more aggressive tightening later.

He expects one more hike in December and a shallow tightening cycle, with developments in West Asia and the second order impact of El Niño remaining key factors to watch. While the overall yield curve has steepened and is pricing in most of the negatives, Bafna said the six-to-18-month segment continues to offer attractive risk-adjusted returns.

Vikas Garg, head-fixed income, Invesco Mutual Fund, expects the current growth-inflation dynamics to warrant another two to three rate hikes to anchor inflation expectations. However, he said the policy-rate trajectory could change rapidly depending on global developments.

"Any resolution of the West Asia conflict could lead to a sharp correction in crude oil prices, thereby easing inflationary pressures," Garg said.

He recommended corporate bonds with maturities of one to three years, where yields of 7.75% and above remain attractive even after factoring in the expected rise in inflation. Corporate bond spreads over government securities are also significantly above their historical averages, providing an additional margin of safety, he said.

Indices decline as RBI move dents investor sentiment

UNDER PRESSURE

KISHOR KADAM
Mumbai, October 7

BENCHMARK EQUITY INDICES declined by about 0.76% on Wednesday, reversing recent gains (partially) after the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) raised the key policy rate, or repo rate, by 25 basis points to 5.50% to contain rising inflation.

After a weak opening and an initial recovery attempt, the Sensex and Nifty failed to sustain their gains and traded in a narrow range. The Sensex settled at 72,638.11, down 429.11 points, or 0.59%, while the Nifty closed at 22,603.05, down 173.05 points, or 0.76%, amid fresh selling across rate-sensitive and other sectors.

Market breadth was negative, with 2,353 losers against 2,018 gainers on the BSE. Investors' wealth declined by ₹2.63 lakh crore to ₹471 lakh crore. On the sectoral front, metals remained the key drag, followed by rate-sensitive realty, auto and consumer durables stocks, while banking stocks ended with modest gains.

Ample liquidity may delay hike in deposit rate

CHRISTINA TITUS
Mumbai, October 7

THE RESERVE BANK of India's 25-basis-point repo rate hike on Wednesday may take time to fully transmit to lending and deposit rates, as abundant liquidity leaves banks with little incentive to raise funding costs, experts said.

"Transmission will likely be slower, except for loans directly linked to the external benchmark lending rate (EBLR), which must adjust faster. Given the surplus liquidity in the system, the weighted average call rate (WACR) remains relatively low, so transmission will remain muted until liquidity gets deployed or the RBI steps up its liquidity mop-up," said Sachin Sachdeva, vice-president and co-group head, financial sector ratings, ICRA.

Sachdeva said banks are also likely to take longer to raise deposit rates as they face little pressure to attract funds. "Deposit-side transmission is likely to begin only after a few months, once liquidity gets absorbed and lenders start chasing domestic deposits."

Madan Sabnavis, chief economist at Bank of Baroda, agreed that banks have little need to reprice deposits while they remain flush with liquidity. "Most lenders can meet short-term requirements via bulk deposits without committing to higher retail rates. Since deposit costs underpin the MCLR, lending rates cannot move up unless funding costs increase."

The WACR, the operating target of monetary policy, ended at 5.37% on Wednesday, 13 basis points below the new repo rate of 5.50%, underscoring the drag that surplus liquidity could exert on monetary transmission.

● Revised rates to come into effect today

FE BUREAU
Mumbai, October 7

SEVERAL BANKS REVISITED their external benchmarked linked lending rates (EBLR) by 25 basis points after the Reserve Bank of India on Wednesday hiked the repo rate by 25 bps to 5.50%, the first hike in nearly three-and-a-half years. These revised EBLR rates will be in effect from October 8.

Out of the banks which announced their revised rates, Karur Vysya Bank offers the highest EBLR rate at 8.80% followed by Indian overseas Bank,

EBLR HIKED BY 25 BPS

Punjab National Bank and Bank of India offering 8.35%. Bank of Baroda offers the lowest EBLR rate at 8.15%.

EBLR linked loans primarily consist of retail loans, personal loans and MSME loans. According to the Reserve Bank of India's latest data, the share of External Benchmark based Lending Rate (EBLR) linked loans in total outstanding floating rate rupee loans of scheduled commercial banks was 68.2% at end-June as against 67.6% at March-end.

Reality bites

Rates needed to be hiked given rising inflation but the cycle need not necessarily be a deep one

THE 25-BASIS-POINT (BPS) hike in the repo rate, together with the shift in stance from neutral to “calibrated tightening”, gives Wednesday’s policy announcement a distinctly hawkish hue. It is not, however, excessively hawkish. Another 25-50 bps of tightening looks likely, but a longer, steeper cycle seems improbable at this point. A longer cycle would depend on where crude oil prices head, how much of the higher cost is passed on to consumers, the course of US Federal Reserve policy, and where US Treasury yields settle. For now, the move looks more like an insurance policy than the start of an aggressive campaign.

What the change in stance does is give the bond market a heads-up: should the global environment worsen, the central bank may be compelled to tighten further. Without committing itself to the extent or length of the cycle, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) is making room for future action. As Governor Sanjay Malhotra put it, from here on it is either a hike or a pause; rate cuts are off the table for now. The market got the message, with the yield on the benchmark 10-year bond rising to 7.24%, up 5 bps.

The inflation outlook made a hike necessary now. The RBI expects inflation to average close to 5.8% over the next three quarters, perilously close to the 6% upper end of the tolerance band, and projects it at 5.6% even in Q1FY28. Some of the coming price rise can be put down to base effects, but price increases are becoming more generalised, with core inflation running at 4.2%. The good news is that there is little evidence of supply-side pressures becoming embedded in pricing behaviour, nor, as yet, of demand-side pressures, although the central bank sees the strong growth in money and credit aggregates as a potential risk. Caution is warranted because the economy is growing briskly despite several macro headwinds, with GDP rising 7.8% year-on-year in the June quarter. Having underestimated growth by a wide margin in Q1FY27, the RBI has raised its forecast for the current year by 40 bps to 7.1%. It clearly believes the economy has enough momentum for aggregate demand to withstand costlier money, at least for now. That is a fair assumption, given the buoyancy in several high-frequency indicators, and a 25-bps hike will not raise EMIs by much.

Liquidity is another cushion. The $135 billion of inflows from foreign currency non-resident (bank) deposits should keep the system flush with funds and help temper interest rates, though the governor expects the money to be deployed by March, so the comfort may be temporary. Despite the hike, the rupee fell 35 paise against the dollar on the day. Higher interest rates can help support a currency, but in this case the strength of the dollar, elevated oil prices, and selling by foreign portfolio investors are proving to be the stronger influences. Until oil prices trend decisively lower, the rupee is likely to remain under pressure. A weaker currency also adds to imported inflation, which is one more reason for the central bank to keep its options open. It is just as well that the RBI has enough foreign exchange reserves to moderate the pace of depreciation. In sum, the policy buys the RBI time and flexibility; how much more it needs to do will be decided as much by global oil and bond markets as by domestic conditions.

Netanyahu's October 7 legacy is isolation

THE HAMAS TERROR attack on Israel, three years ago today, horrified the world. But the indiscriminate ferocity of the Israeli response under Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has almost completely eclipsed the initial atrocity in shaping global attitudes towards the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. The mass casualties and systematic levelling of Gaza, followed by reckless escalations in Lebanon and Iran, have left Israel more isolated internationally than at any point in its modern history.

This broad backlash has left Israeli voters with a stark choice in this month’s election: elect a government committed to regaining international confidence, or further alienate the country’s traditional allies with Netanyahu and his far-right coalition. The consequences of that may be felt most immediately in the US, Israel’s most important ally. The Gaza war and its aftermath have prompted the most fundamental reassessment of the US-Israeli relationship among Democrats in decades, maybe ever.

Though Netanyahu has clashed with Democratic presidents since Bill Clinton, the party’s tradition of ironclad support for Israel had shifted only glacially before the October 7 attacks. But three years later, amid widespread revulsion across the party over Netanyahu’s actions—and President Joe Biden’s reluctance to confront them—it’s clear that tradition is now interred beneath the rubble in Gaza.

“It is a massive shift,” says Jeremy Ben-Ami, president of J Street, a group that supports Israel but often criticizes its right-leaning government. “It is almost a full 180.”

The new posture was evident last week, when the Senate considered a resolution to require the State Department to report on Israeli human rights abuses against Palestinians in the West Bank. The resolution failed when nearly every Republican opposed it, but every Senate Democrat apart from Pennsylvania’s John Fetterman voted yes. Recent congressional votes to block the sale of 1,000-pound bombs and armored bulldozers to Israel—or even to terminate all military and civilian aid—also failed amid overwhelming GOP resistance. But each drew support from most Democrats.

Another recent sign came when Democrats introduced legislation in both chambers to impose biting economic sanctions on Israel over its actions in the West Bank. Most of the sponsors come from the Democrats’ left flank, but the measure’s principal Senate supporter is Delaware’s Chris Coons—a centrist who functioned as Biden’s lead Senate ally on foreign policy.

This flurry of congressional action only hints at the larger reconsideration that will almost certainly unfold during the 2028 Democratic primaries. I expect the emotional flashpoint will be whether candidates use the word “genocide” to describe Israel’s actions in Gaza.

But candidates on both sides of that debate will likely coalesce around major policy shifts. It appears likely that ending the financial aid that funds Israeli purchases of American weapons will be the baseline position for all Democratic presidential candidates. The debate among Democrats will be whether to go further by banning the sale of offensive and even defensive weapons to Israel.

That position will draw support from candidates on the left. More mainstream presidential candidates will likely resist a complete ban, just as most House and Senate Democrats running in competitive races do today. But Ben-Ami predicts even Democrats who reject a complete embargo will demand tougher enforcement of US laws that prohibit arms sales to governments that violate human rights—and new conditions on US support, such as curbing settler violence and blocking further Israeli land grabs in Gaza.

All these changes are rooted in the collapse of support for Israel among Democratic voters since the Gaza war. Such shifts aren’t unique to the Democratic Party or the US. International polling last summer by Pew found over 85% of voters who identify with the left, and 70% or more who identify with the centre, hold a negative view of Israel in Australia, the UK, Germany, France, Spain, Canada, and South Korea. British Foreign Secretary Ed Miliband’s unsparing speech at last week’s Labour Party conference—accusing Israel of supporting “ethnic cleansing by the settler terrorists in the West Bank” and committing “war crimes in Gaza”—crystallised the hardening global consensus, as did the mass walkout from Netanyahu’s address last month at the UN.

The spreading political toxicity stands as Netanyahu’s bitter legacy. But many revolted by Israel’s actions since October 7 still recognise that it faces genuine security threats. If Israelis elect a more moderate government, that may provide an opening for a reset in Israel’s global relations. If Israeli voters return Netanyahu to power, all signs suggest the nation’s international isolation will deepen further.

THE DECISION OF the Monetary Policy Committee (MPC), standing united in raising the benchmark rates by a modest 25 basis points (bps), yet a somewhat divided house in changing the stance to calibrated tightening, augurs well on two fronts: Calming the beleaguered markets whose life-line is increasingly coming under threat from multiple chokepoints as well as signalling steadfast support, akin to a what-ever-it-takes attitude.

The governor put the state of the evolving economy in a plain c’est la vie manner, careful not to press the panic button despite an apocalypse-like situation gathering winds on the western front. Beyond the rate action itself, we believe the October policy communication represents a transition from watchfulness to explicit tightening. Our analysis of the governor’s statement and the monetary policy statement reveals a marked convergence in their degree of hawkishness this time around. Our reading of the governor’s statement suggests it is more vivid and risk-heavy in its presentation, with greater emphasis on a fragile market sentiment, oil-price volatility, and the possibility of an unwieldy correction in AI stock valuations. The MPC resolution, in contrast, is more restrained, effectively stating that the current stance only signals a near-term choice between a hike and a pause.

The rekindling of the West Asia crisis has fuelled concerns on the external macro environment and pass-through effects, as import bills remain unusually elevated led by a spike in the crude basket [average for FY27 (year-to-date) stands at $101.8/barrel, with October prices hovering above $120 on free-on-board basis] as global supply chains are tilted more towards negotiated prices and shadow ship delivery.

The governor has stated succinctly how the second-order effects are converging with distinct supply chain pressures, and inbound as well as outbound activities coming under duress as both backward and forward integration show kinks. India Inc has performed well (despite equity markets remaining a weak spot) but commodity pressures (copper prices at all-time highs despite a lacklustre mainland where the economy remains export-driven but appears to struggle on the domestic front) can add twists to the tale.

The acceptance of generalisation of inflation is an important metric, as it nudges all stakeholders to look beyond what seems apparent and obvious (but may misguide as a façade). Secondly, it paves the way for building strategic counter-measures across key fulcrums. Unconventional measures must supplement common wisdom.

The average consumer price index inflation should hover above 5% for FY27, with intermittent upshots, as more items in the basket trend above the midline (4%), elevating core print, whereas a nuanced supply-side constraint unveils itself through two acts. First, the strain on the global food supply chain through challenges to mobility, despite a good harvest, plagues the food basket of Europe where renewed conflicts are escalating. Secondly, the El Niño shocks impacting domestic rabi output, as disparities mar prospects through drought as well as floods (Gangetic plains faced incessant rains at irregular intervals while Maharashtra faces a near-total drought). The patterns of sowing will be evident by early November.

Two important points remain to be taken note of, as forward-looking statements—growth impetus and liquidity conundrums. According to the RBI, growth should remain strong enough and credit demand good enough after this hike (and if we factor at least one more rise in CY26, its quantum indecisive as of now). Second, the liquidity glut in the ecosystem would demand the RBI to proactively drain the inessential portion and ensure it does not peter out into lending rates or start a price war among banks if they get wrong signals on growth and short-termism dictates lending decisions.

Probably the biggest hazard dangles over the rupee, which has been under extreme pressure against a nonchalant greenback after breaching 96. It has slouched to all-time lows now with forward covers signalling some buildup of near-month positions, even as non-deliverable forwards spike to levels unseen in recent years.

In order to support the rupee (which could eventually march towards uncharted territories), we propose the following measures.

First, the plight of the rupee, accentuated by the flight of capital from overseas investors as the dollar strengthens rapidly (debt outflows totalled $2.1 billion in September) warrants further counter-cyclical policy measures beyond debt

The RBI should continue to focus on liquidity management through the conventional tools of open market operations/variable rate repo instead of resorting to the cash reserve ratio

Nuclear power has a tariff hurdle

SOMIT DASGUPTA

Visiting Professor, ICRIER

THE DRAFT RULES and regulations for the Sustainable Harnessing and Advancement of Nuclear Energy for Transforming India (SHANTI) Act, 2025, have cast new light on critical aspects. It is known that the Act was promulgated to allow the private sector to enter nuclear generation—hitherto only reserved for the public sector. With the publication of the draft rules and regulations, we now know that the licence granted will be a composite one, covering the entire project life cycle including decommissioning.

There is now clarity on the issue of meeting liabilities from nuclear accidents, should they occur. The operator must maintain insurance, financial security, or a combination of both. Further, the duration of liability cover has to last till the spent fuel has been removed. However, the liability will be reviewed every five years, which brings in an element of uncertainty. Moreover, foreign reactor technology is welcome, provided it has the requisite regulatory approvals in the host country. The fact that nuclear captive power will be allowed for the “hard-to-abate” sectors or those difficult to decarbonise—the industrial sector, data centres, and semiconductor manufacturing—has been amplified.

These are only a few instances where the rules have given more clarity after the promulgation of the Act. There is, however, none on the commercial aspects of private sector participation in nuclear generation, specifically the determination of nuclear tariffs.

Would it be a single-part tariff as is the case now (also applicable to renewable generation), or a conventional two-part tariff which will have a fixed cost and a variable cost? Will nuclear power be treated as a “must-run” (like renewables) or will it be treated under the “merit-order” dispatch regime? Will the tariff be determined only on “cost-plus” principles or will it be competitively bid for?

Tariffs can be viewed from the perspective of the buyer and the seller. From a seller’s perspective, if we move to a two-part tariff, the seller will be apprehensive about finding a place in the “merit-order” dispatch. Under this regime, all sellers are stacked according to their variable cost of generation and the cheapest generator dispatches first. Nuclear generators have little to worry on this score because though nuclear power has very high capital (leading to high fixed costs), their variable cost is very low. The capital cost of a 700-Mw reactor can be around ₹15 crore per Mw against about ₹9 crore per Mw for coal. However, the lifespan of a nuclear plant is 60 years against 40 years for coal, so the fixed cost can be spread out. The reason for the low variable cost is that nuclear fuel has energy embedded in it which is thousands of times more than that in an equivalent amount of coal. So, nuclear generators will always be able to find a slot in the “merit-order” dispatch and will not sit idle, provided there are no transmission bottlenecks. For the nuclear generators, the best situation is to be designated as “must-run”, similar to renewable generation. Some state electricity regulatory commissions have, in fact, explicitly stated the same. If one retains a single-part tariff, there could be a problem of dispatch unless simultaneously we treat it as “must-run”.

The buyer would, however, not only be bothered about the variable cost but also the fixed cost. The natural thing to do is to compare the total cost with coal-based generation. Coal generators, especially pithead plants, will usually have a lower levelised cost of generation compared to nuclear ones. The buyer will thus be forced not to sign any power purchase agreement with the nuclear generator, subsequently stalling the plant’s establishment. The buyer is not bothered about the nature of the tariff or the plant being “must-run”. She will only look at the total

The economic principle is that all fixed costs should be recovered through a fixed charge and likewise, all variable costs are to be recovered through a variable charge cost of generation and compare it to coal-based generation. In a two-part regime, the buyer will have to bear the fixed cost even if power from the nuclear plant is not required. The chances for this are low, because the low variable cost will ensure that it falls under the merit-order dispatch.

Now that we have a target of 100 Gw of nuclear capacity by 2047, it is time to revisit the single-part tariff for nuclear generation

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Pros and cons of deal

“Hold the line” (FE, September 7) is a timely reminder to the government which seems more eager to sign a deal and claim credit for it than to weigh its potential benefits and hazards for India. The US has already shown its intention by compelling India to open its market, while imposing tariff burdens on Indian exports, besides committing us to $500 billion in trade that includes weapons and costly crude. Further, it can reject Indian goods on grounds such as forced labour or non-adherence to quality. Except for the organised sector, the entire workforce in India could be vulnerable to being labelled as forced labour. Therefore, instead of releasing the contents of the deal only after signing it, it would be better to let people know the provisions in advance, so that they can air grievances. —AG Rajmohan, Anantapur

Need for pragmatism

“The non-imminent Indo-US trade deal” (FE, October 7) offers a realistic and sharp assessment of the ongoing trade negotiations between India and the US. While both nations continue to engage in high-level discussions, the article rightly highlights that a breakthrough remains elusive due to sticking points around tariffs, regulatory frameworks, and market access. Pragmatism must guide negotiations.

segments. Patient capital in equity may be incentivised through a minimised long-term capital gains-graded structure beyond a reasonable period, say three years, with some parity for domestic investors too, while the short-term capital gains structure may also be tweaked intermittently.

Second, Mint Street should consider widening the effective interest rate corridor by hiking the marginal standing facility rate (even if for a shorter period) to attract capital without touching the policy rate (it need not wait for another MPC meeting and tweak it mid-policy cycle like it did in April 2020).

Third, the RBI should continue to focus on liquidity management through the conventional tools of open market operations/variable rate repo instead of resorting to the cash reserve ratio (CRR). The CRR as an instrument of active liquidity management is expensive to administer and “using reserve requirements to fine tune the money supply is like trying to use a jackhammer to cut a diamond”, as Frederic Mishkin prophesied in 1997.

Fourth, revisit the export realisation and repatriation period in foreign currency. A shorter period of six months should be the norm (against nine months), with longer periods being an exception only allowed on a case-to-case basis to deter withholding patterns.

Fifth, the evolving situation warrants an agile response on the rate front. That may mean a jumbo rate hike in the next policy (or off-cycle, should the fist come to a blow).

Given the steepening inflation trajectory currently underway, we believe the December policy cycle could mostly deliver a 50-bps rate hike, depending on the global conditions. Considering the imminent global volatility, RBI rate hikes in small increments must be avoided. A 6% repo rate by December could be the best possible option with Q2 GDP growth also likely to effectively top 7.5%.

Jaguar's electric gamble: Winning over US tech millionaires

JAGUAR LAND ROVER has unveiled its new Jaguar Type 01 electric car, with an ultra-long bonnet, no rear window and a wealth of technology, in New York as it targets the potential for growth in the US market.

The UK-based luxury car-maker, which is owned by Tata Motors, said the Type 01, an electric four-door GT car, in subtle, muted shades, with a starting price of $130,500, marks the "beginning of a new generation of Jaguar vehicles and a transformative new era".

The high price tag represents a gamble in the US, where enthusiasm for EVs has been lower than in Europe.

JLR, however, plans to sharpen its focus on its US cus-tomerbase as Europe's automotive industry, particularly electric vehicles, has been pressured by competitively priced Chinese cars, tariff costs and disruptions from the US-Israeli war on Iran.

The Type 01's design harks back to the 1960s E-type Jaguar sports cars that have been treasured by collectors and follows on from the 2024 unveiling of the Jaguar Type 00 radical concept car in bright pink as part of the auto maker's brand relaunch. The Type 00 and relaunch drew criticism from car enthusiasts and some politicians.

JLR is also seeking to recover from a cyberattack that halted production and disrupted suppliers last year. As part of a turnaround plan, it announced last month it would reduce nearly 10% of its workforce through voluntary redundancies over the next two years. As part of the shakeup, it has committed to shifting its entire lineup to EVs, even though some industry executives have said they are unconvinced that wealthy car buyers want to go electric.

Earlier this year Ferrari's first attempt at an EV was criticised because it looks nothing like the Italian luxury automaker's petrol models. Last month Bentley unveiled its first EV, which will be priced at the bottom end of its range.

Lamborghini has ruled out an EV before the end of the decade and McLaren said it had no plans to go electric because customers have shown no interest in moving on from their petrol-engine models.

SpaceX eyes $40 bn debt for Nvidia chips

LAURA BENITEZ AND CARMEN ARROYO

ELON MUSK'S SPACEX is in talks with banks and investors to raise $40 billion to buy chips from Nvidia, people familiar with the matter said, in what would be among the biggest-ever debt financings for the AI buildout.

Pacific Investment Management is one of the investment managers looking at the deal, according to the people, who spoke on condition of anonymity as the talks are private. SpaceX's fundraising discussions are in an early stage and could end without a deal being completed, they said.

Musk's AI, satellite and rocket conglomerate is seeking to raise about $10 billion in bank loans and $30 billion in investment-grade debt to pay for the chips, the Financial Times reported earlier, citing unnamed sources familiar with the matter. Apollo Global Management is leading the financing, in a deal that is expected to close in 2027, it said.

Singapore, October 7

THE GLOBAL ECONOMY is under threat from persistently high energy prices, record public debt and risks from the AI investment boom, IMF Managing Director Kristalina Georgieva warned on Wednesday, urging governments to implement protective fiscal and monetary policy measures.

In a speech previewing IMF and World Bank meetings next week in Bangkok, Georgieva said the world was being pulled in two directions — a negative energy supply shock from West Asia conflicts and a positive demand shock from AI that is also fuelling inflation. "The combined impact of these two forces is highly uneven across the world," Georgieva said, adding that the AI boom was bypassing many countries.

New IMF growth forecasts to be released during the Bangkok meetings will show the biggest growth downgrades will come in economies ravaged by war, Georgieva said. These include Ukraine, suffering significant damage to civilian and economic infrastructure, and Gulf countries hit by Iranian strikes and reduced energy exports.

Georgieva did not indicate in her prepared remarks whether the IMF's latest World Economic Outlook would change the overall 2026 global growth forecast from the sluggish 3.0% rate forecast in July.

That forecast, which predicted a rebound to 3.4% growth in 2027, assumed the Strait of Hormuz would start to reopen in mid-July and return to pre-war conditions by March 2027. It assumed oil prices would average $89 a barrel in 2026 and $78 a barrel in 2027.

Georgieva said oil prices remain at $100 a barrel, with impaired refining capacity adding another $100 in "crack-spread" margins a barrel for key products including diesel. The winter heating season will boost demand even as natural gas supplies remain restricted by threats to LNG shipping through Hormuz, she added.

"Even if the war in the Gulf were to end soon, the problem of high energy prices will likely persist for some time," Georgieva said, adding that Brent crude oil futures predict high oil prices through 2027.

Higher energy prices are pushing up inflation, policy rates and bond yields, she said, noting that US, German and Japanese 10-year sovereign yields are at their highest levels.

RBI hikes, signals more

FUTURE POLICY ACTION could only be a rate hike or a pause, depending on evolving economic conditions and the outlook, Malhotra added. The policy pivot comes against an increasingly challenging global backdrop. The US Federal Reserve has already raised rates by 25 bps, while elevated crude prices, high bond yields in advanced economies, trade uncertainty and a stronger dollar have tightened financial conditions for emerging markets.

At home, the RBI's revised forecasts underline the balancing act confronting policymakers. While stronger-than-expected economic activity has given RBI greater room to respond to inflation, price pressures have become less comfortable. For the Q1FY28, the RBI expects inflation at 5.6% and GDP growth at 7.1%.

Financial markets reacted nervously to the policy shift. The rupee weakened 34 paise to close at 96.77 against the dollar, a five-month low, while the benchmark bond yield was at 7.24%, the highest since December 2023. After gaining for two sessions, the Sensex fell 429 points to close at 72,638.

Economists see Wednesday's move as the beginning of a measured tightening cycle rather than an aggressive series of rate increases. "This shows clearly that the central bank is prepared for the long haul, in case the global environment remains uneasy for longer," said Pranjul Bhandari, chief India economist at HSBC. At the same time, the calibrated-tightening stance gives the RBI flexibility, since it has not committed itself to a predetermined quantum of tightening and can choose between a hike and a pause at each meeting, she said.

Bhandari expects a 50-bps rate-hike cycle, half of which has now been delivered. While another increase beyond that cannot be ruled out, particularly if growth remains resilient despite a strengthening El Niño, she does not expect a deep tightening cycle.

Sonal Varma, economist at Nomura Holdings, called Wednesday's decision "hawkish," citing the shift in stance together with commentary that inflation is becoming more broad-based. "Markets will see the stance change as a signal that the rate hike is not just policy recalibration, but the beginning of a steeper tightening cycle," she said.

K Balasubramanian, India CEO and banking head and Indian subcontinent sub-cluster head at Citi, said a measured start to tightening now reduces the need for sharper adjustments later and reinforces India's macroeconomic stability. C S Setty, chairman of SBI, said the RBI's policy action reflected a calibrated response to emerging inflationary pressures while recognising the underlying resilience of the Indian economy. "The upward revision in the growth outlook is reassuring, even as geopolitical developments and supply-side pressures including elevated energy prices warrant continued close monitoring," he added.

Alongside the monetary policy decision, the RBI announced a series of measures aimed at strengthening financial-market infrastructure. It allowed interoperability among non-banking financial company account aggregators, enabling customers to aggregate financial information available across different account aggregators through a single platform.

RBI also said regulated securities depositories such as NSDL and CDSL would be allowed to include information on bank deposit accounts in CAS by December 31. Separately, the RBI will constitute a technical consultative committee for financial markets to provide a forum for structured engagement with market participants and other stakeholders on pol-

IT ALSO ENVISAGES using Airtel's ground network infrastructure to complement Starlink's satellite network.

Jio, meanwhile, has agreed to make Starlink solutions available through its retail outlets and online storefronts and establish support for installation and activation. The two companies are also exploring ways to use their respective infrastructure to expand connectivity.

The partnerships followed months of differences between Musk and Jio over the allocation of spectrum for satellite services. The government ultimately opted for administrative allocation rather than an auction, a position favoured by satellite operators including Starlink.

Despite the partnerships with India's two largest private telecom operators, Starlink's commercial launch remains subject to the pending regulatory approvals.

The approval process had faced delays earlier this year after concerns were raised by agencies under the home ministry over how Starlink would respond if foreign governments made competing demands on the company during a crisis. Starlink had rejected such reports as unfounded, while maintaining that discussions with the government were continuing.

CNN's big reset under Skydance

AFTER A TUMULTUOUS, roughly yearlong process, Skydance-owned Paramount closed its $81 billion buyout of Warner Bros. Discovery on Tuesday. And beyond Hollywood, the mega merger brings two titans of the American TV news landscape — CBS and CNN — under the same roof.

On the eve of the deal's completion, Skydance confirmed that CNN's Mark Thompson will stay on as editor-in-chief of the network — separate from CBS, where Bari Weiss remains at the helm. But how the combined company's news operations will look farther down the road is yet to be seen.

Politics are also top of mind. The billionaire family of Skydance CEO David Ellison has a cozy relationship with President Donald Trump — who has been far from shy about targeting coverage he deems unfavorable from both CNN and CBS. Last month, his administration moved to bar CNN from the White House. And the network's new ownership arrives as coverage ramps up less than a month ahead of the 2026 midterm elections.

Ellison has pledged to maintain "complete" editorial independence. Under a recent settlement with states that challenged the merger, the company also agreed to establish new monitoring of CBS and CNN by forming a "News Editorial Independence Board" within 180 days.

Still, Skydance's corporate leaders will choose who sits on this board. And critics warn of the consequences of industry consolidation overall.

CNN's editor-in-chief remains

Skydance announced on Monday that Thompson — who has been CNN's chair and CEO since 2023 — would continue to lead the network. In a staff memo published by Business Insider and others, Thompson said he had "real confidence" Ellison and other Skydance leaders "will fully support the principle and practice of the kind of independent news that CNN has always stood for."

Thompson, a former chief executive of the BBC and The New York Times, acknowledged that some details of how CNN will operate have yet to be finalized — but said he planned to lead the network "with the same responsibilities and prerogatives that I have now."

Airtel postpaid tariffs raised 3-11%

THE MOVE COMES weeks ahead of the expected initial public offering of Jio Platforms. A tariff increase could support Airtel's revenue growth and valuations, while potentially putting pressure on Jio to consider a similar move as it prepares to tap public markets.

Airtel had last raised its headline tariffs in June 2024, after a two-year gap, as operators sought to improve returns on capital and lift Arpu. Airtel's postpaid tariffs were increased by 13-20% in that round.

The latest increase, however, is unlikely to materially lift Airtel's blended Arpu, according to analysts. Airtel had 30 million postpaid users at the end of the June quarter, accounting for about 8% of its 376.5 million mobile subscriber base. Even if the entire ₹50 increase is realised, the impact on overall Arpu would remain limited because of the relatively small postpaid base.

The maximum increase in Airtel's blended Arpu is likely to be around ₹4, or about 1.5% of its current Arpu of ₹264, analysts said. The more immediate consideration for Airtel is whether it can sustain the higher postpaid prices without losing users to Vodafone Idea.

Airtel's Arpu remains well ahead of Reliance Jio's Arpu of ₹215.6 at the end of June, while Vodafone Idea's was at ₹177.

The latest postpaid increase follows a series of pricing actions by Airtel in the prepaid segment.

In August, the company discontinued its entry-level ₹299 monthly plan offering 1GB of daily data. Subscribers now need to opt for the ₹349 plan for 28 days, a ₹50, or 16.7%, increase, although the newer plan offers 1.5GB daily data and unlimited 5G access.

Airtel also withdrew its ₹319, ₹579, ₹619 and ₹649 prepaid plans in August. Those changes did not trigger similar moves by rivals. Vodafone Idea retained its ₹299 entry-level plan offering 1GB daily data, while Jio continued with its ₹299 plan offering 1.5GB daily data.

Vodafone Idea, meanwhile, last month introduced free international roaming on select postpaid, prepaid and enterprise plans. Unlike Airtel's blanket ₹50 increase across its postpaid portfolio, Vi's roaming-linked price increase applies only to selected plans, making Airtel's latest move a broader postpaid repricing.

Debt risk gets a fresh colour code from Sebi

● Risk-o-Meter mandated for key debt instruments

KUSHAN SHAH
October 7, Mumbai

RISK RADAR

■ The new risk-o-meter will have to be mandatorily included in offer document

■ The regulator also increased the maximum number of ISINs maturing in a financial year

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE board of India (Sebi) introduced a credit risk-o-meter for debt securities on Wednesday aimed to assist investors in assessing credit risk through colour-coded visualisation prior to investing. The disclosure of risk-o-meter will be applicable to all listed and proposed to be listed issuances of non-convertible securities (NCS), commercial papers (CPs), securitised debt instruments (SDIs), security receipts (SRs) and structured debt /market-linked debentures (MLDs), whether issued by way of public issue or private placement.

The new risk-o-meter will have to be mandatorily included in offer document, abridged prospectus, private placement memorandum, all ads of issuer and online bond platform provider (OBPPs) and their web and mobile platforms. The regulator has asked the exchanges and depositories to put in place necessary systems and processes to implement the measure within the next 45 days.

Further, the regulator also exempted issuers issuing debt securities or non-convertible redeemable preference shares on a private placement basis from the requirement of hiring a merchant banker. The regulator had proposed the same in its consultation paper in August 2026. The exemption will only be applicable if the issuer is registered or regulated by a financial sector regulator in India (like Sebi, RBI, IRDAI or PFRDA) or the issuer is listed in any segment on any of the recognized stock exchange for a period of at least one year with no pending fines or penalties.

The issuer must also not have defaulted in the last three financial years and the current financial year on any payments due in respect to the securities like repayment, interest, dividend.

The exemption will be applicable only for unsubordinated or senior debt securities rated AA- or above secured by a first or pari-passu charge on the identifiable assets of the issuer.

For public issuers, however, the debt securities can be secured or unsecured. If a debt security has multiple ratings, the lowest rating will be considered for determining eligibility for exemption.

The regulator also increased the maximum number of international securities identification numbers (ISINs) maturing in a financial year for issuance of debt securities on a private placement basis from 14 to 17 with further six ISINs available for issuance of capital gains tax debt securities by authorised issuers.

A maximum of 12 of these 17 ISINs will be allowed for the issuance of plain vanilla secured and unsecured debt securities with an aggregate upper limit of ₹15,000 crore across issuances. For each additional issuance of ₹3,000 crore, one additional ISIN may be permitted to mature in the same financial year.

A maximum of five ISINs maturing per financial year shall be allowed for structured debt securities, market-linked debt securities, floating rate bonds (FRBs), zero coupon bonds (ZCBs), and debt capital instruments (Tier II bonds).

Ola Electric fixes ₹27 per share price for ₹1,000-cr rights issue

OLA ELECTRIC'S BOARD on Wednesday approved the terms of its proposed rights issue of partly paid-up equity shares worth nearly ₹1,000 crore, with the issue priced at ₹27 per share. The company will issue 37.03 crore partly paid-up equity shares at ₹27 apiece, including a premium of ₹17 per share. The issue will raise ₹999.74 crore if fully subscribed. The company has fixed October 13 as the record date to determine shareholders eligible to participate in the rights issue.

Under the approved entitlement ratio, eligible shareholders will be entitled to two rights shares for every 25 shares held on the record date. Investors will pay ₹16.20 per share at the time of application, with the remaining ₹10.80 per share payable through a first and final call. The call is expected to be made by October 31, 2027.

The board has retained the right to change the payment schedule, including the timing of the first and final call, subject to applicable laws. Earlier, Ola Electric said its promoter Bhavish Aggarwal will pledge a 4.32% stake in the company to fund his participation in the rights issue.

"No shares are being sold. The promoter will invest alongside all other shareholders on the same terms," it added. Aggarwal individually holds 1.23 billion equity shares, representing a 26.52% stake in the firm.

Ola Electric's board had last week approved a rights issue of up to ₹1,000 crore. According to the Draft Letter of Offer, about ₹350 crore of the proceeds will be used for repayment of debt, while ₹400 crore will be allocated towards organic growth initiatives. The remaining amount will be used for other uses. —FE BUREAU

THE IMPACT OF the proposed changes to the ITC framework is expected to be most visible in sectors such as pharmaceuticals, textiles, footwear, fertilisers, renewable energy and electric vehicles, experts said. These sectors have faced instances of GST on finished products being lower than the tax paid on several inputs and services, resulting in credit accumulation and working-capital blockages.

As reported earlier, the Council is expected to allow refunds of taxes paid on services and plant and machinery, in addition to raw materials. Businesses may be able to recover tax paid on equipment and machinery over five years, matching the asset's useful life.

The invoice-matching system, which will link sellers' reports with buyers' claims and map input-output ledgers with summary returns, is expected to ensure that tax liability arising from a supplier's default is restricted to the defaulter. This could reduce compliance hassles for other taxpayers in the supply chain.

The Council is also expected to allow ITC on outdoor catering, group health and life insurance

The current inverted-duty refund outgo is estimated at around ₹30,000 crore annually, largely pertaining to eligible ITC on inputs. The proposed ITC on employee group health and life insurance is estimated to release more than ₹5,000 crore for corporates, while around ₹2,500 crore of compensation cess credit is reportedly stranded with automobile dealers.

"While the ultimate velocity of these cash payouts will depend heavily on the digital infrastructure of the GST portal and the precision of the forthcoming operational guidelines, the policy intent marks a pivot in India's fiscal administration," Ramjee said.

expected to free up credit and improve working capital for businesses.

Another decision expected on Thursday is faster acknowledgement of refund claims, with the tax authorities required to acknowledge claims within 10 days. The acknowledgement may be deemed to have been issued if it is not provided within the stipulated period.

"The GST Council's proposed five-year staggered cash refund framework for capital goods marks a landmark structural correction, successfully resolving a decade-long distortion in India's trade architecture," said Sivakumar Ramjee, executive director—indirect tax, Nangia Global.

The reports cover KSC New Town, Northern Extended Notified Area (ENA) in Palghar and Southern ENA in Raigad, including Alibag. The exercise used advanced geospatial technologies such as aerial LiDAR, high-resolution imagery, DGPS, GIS mapping, cadastral records and field verification to map settlements, terrain, infrastructure, natural resources and existing land-use patterns. KSC New Town covers 324 sq km and 124 villages across Pen, Uran and Panvel talukas. The area is expected to benefit from connectivity provided by Navi Mumbai International Airport, JNPA, Atal Setu and the Virar-Alibaug Multi-Modal Corridor. The Palghar ELU report covers 1,007 sq km and 224 villages, including forests, rivers, agricultural areas, mangroves, wetlands and a 40-km coastline. The Southern ENA report covers 677 sq km and 217 villages, including Alibag and its coastal, tourism and industrial areas. According to MMRDA, around 45% of the combined study area falls under forest and green-area categories. Future planning will therefore focus on protecting and restoring mangroves, wetlands, rivers, water bodies and natural drainage systems while identifying appropriate areas for development. Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis said the reports provide a stronger foundation for planning Mumbai 3.0 and Mumbai 4.0 by integrating transport, employment, housing and environmental protection.

SAMAJWADI PARTY SKIPS LUNCH HOSTED BY CONG CHIEF KHARGE

Rahul leads another day of protest against CEC

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, October 7

GIVING FURTHER MOMENTUM to his politics of street protest, Rahul Gandhi on Wednesday led INDIA bloc leaders to another resistance-packed day — moving from the opposition grouping's vegetarian lunch meeting to near Jantar Mantar in a procession of buses for a surprise dharna.

But for the second day, police stalled the planned anti-CEC protests midway, forcibly detaining him and other leaders.

"We are not going to stop protesting till (Chief Election Commissioner) Gyanesh Kumar resigns. This is a fight to protect the most sacred thing in this country. There is nothing that Narendra Modi and Amit Shah can do that will stop us," Gandhi said.

There were several dramatic moments in the nearly three-hour-long bus procession and an impromptu sit-in at the roundabout in front of the Shangri-La hotel when the opposition MPs were stopped by security personnel, with Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra lying Rahul Gandhi kept resisting police attempts to put him inside a van for detention. The INDIA bloc leaders jostled with security personnel who tried to detain them and clear the area.

A day after INDIA bloc MPs' march from Parliament and Rahul Gandhi's sit-in at Akashvani Bhawan, Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge hosted the lunch for the MPs of the alliance at a South Indian restaurant at Janpath, seen by many as a show of solidarity and a cover for launching another street protest.

The MPs converged at the all-vegetarian Sagar Ratna. Earlier, Rahul Gandhi was trolled online by a section of X users for having a non-vegetarian roll from 'Khan Chacha' eatery during his eight-hour sit-in at the Akashvani Bhawan.

The lunch began at 1:30 PM with opposition MPs congregating for a second straight day.

After about one-and-a-half hours, the MPs streamed out of the eatery and went and sat in three buses parked on Janpath Road and headed towards Jantar Mantar.

Some Congress leaders, including Amarinder Singh Raja Warring, Imran Masood, Imran Pratapgarhi, Deepender Hooda and Srinivas B V climbed the roof of the bus in which Kharge, Rahul and Priyanka were travelling, and waved the tricolour, as the procession crawled from Janpath to Jantar Mantar, bringing the high security area to a halt for the second day.

However, the buses were stopped by a multi-layered security cordon at Ashoka Road, after travelling a kilometre, near the Shangri-La hotel, barely another kilometre away from the Jantar Mantar protest site.

SC agrees to hear split verdict on law for CEC, ECs

THE SUPREME COURT on Wednesday agreed to examine a plea seeking recall of its recent split verdict on whether challenges to the 2023 law governing the appointment of the Chief Election Commissioner and Election Commissioners should be referred to a larger Constitution bench.

On September 23, a bench of Justices Dipankar Datta and Satish Chandra Sharma gave split opinions on whether a batch of pleas challenging the validity of a 2023 law that excludes the Chief Justice of India from the panel for selecting the Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) and Election Commissioners (ECs) should be referred to a larger Constitution bench.

It had said due to a difference of opinion, the matter be placed before CJI Surya Kant on the administrative side for constitution of a bench of appropriate strength for an effective and authoritative adjudication.

On Wednesday, a bench comprising the Chief Justice of India and Justices Joymalya Bagchi and V Mohana was told about the recall application by senior advocate Gopal Sankaranarayanan.

"We will examine and take a call," the CJI said.

Sankaranarayanan told the bench that the recall application had earlier been mentioned before a bench headed by Justice Datta, but the matter had subsequently been released from that bench and he was asked to mention it before the CJI.

"There is a split verdict on the Chief Election Commissioner issue. We have mentioned an application for recall of the judgment," the senior advocate said.

When the CJI asked whether there was any other interlocutory application (IA), Sankaranarayanan said that a curative petition had also been filed, but added that the recall application was a separate plea. —PTI

2. NECESSITY FOR THE BUYBACK AND DETAILS THEREOF

The Company has been generating reasonable amounts of cash on an ongoing basis. The current Buyback proposal is in line with the Company's practice of returning excess cash to shareholders, thereby increasing shareholder value in the longer term, and improving the Return on Equity. The Company believes that the Buyback is being undertaken by the Company after taking into account the operational and strategic cash requirements of the Company in the medium term and for returning surplus funds to the shareholders in an effective and efficient manner. The expected cash generation and strong balance sheet position of the Company allows it to reward its members, while retaining sufficient capital for business requirements. The Buyback is being undertaken for the following reasons:

2.1. The Buyback will help the Company to distribute surplus cash to its shareholders holding Equity Shares thereby enhancing the overall return for them;

2.2. The Buyback is expected to improve return on equity through distribution of cash and improve earnings per share by reduction in the equity base in the long term, thereby leading to long term increase in members' value;

2.3. The Buyback gives an option to all the members of the Company as on the Record Date, either to sell their Equity Shares and receive cash or not to sell their Equity Shares and get a potential increase in their percentage shareholding in the Company post the Buyback, without additional investment; and

2.4. The Buyback, which is being implemented through the Tender Offer route would involve allocating to the Small Shareholders the higher of: (a) the number of shares entitled as per their shareholding; or (b) 15% of the number of shares to be bought back, as per Regulation 6 of the Buyback Regulations. However, in case the bids are placed by the Stock Broker during the last two days of the Tendering Period, the Stock Broker/Eligible Shareholder should ensure that documents reach the Registrar on or before the Buyback Window Closing Date. The envelope should be super scribed as "VRL Logistics Limited Buyback Offer 2026". One copy of the TRS will be retained by Registrar to the Buyback and it will provide acknowledgement of the same to the Stock Broker / Eligible Shareholder.

In case the Eligible Shareholder, being a Non-Resident Shareholder, is not in a position to produce the said certificate, the Equity Shares would be deemed to have been acquired on non-repatriation basis, and in that case, the Eligible Shareholder shall submit a consent letter addressed to the Company, allowing the Company to make the payment on a non-repatriation basis in respect of the valid Equity Shares accepted under the Buyback.
- (vii) If any of the above stated documents (as applicable) are not enclosed along with the tender form, the Equity Shares tendered by Eligible Shareholders, being Non-Resident Shareholders, under the Buyback are liable to be rejected.
13. METHOD OF SETTLEMENT
- 13.1. The settlement of trade(s) shall be carried out in the manner similar to settlement of trade(s) in the secondary market.
- 13.2. The Company will transfer the consideration pertaining to the Buyback (net of tax deducted at source) to the Clearing Corporation's bank account through the Company's Broker as per the secondary market mechanism, as per the prescribed schedule. For demat Equity Shares accepted under the Buyback, the Clearing Corporation will make direct funds pay-out to the respective Eligible Shareholders' bank account linked to its demat account. If bank account details of any Eligible Shareholder holding Equity Shares in dematerialized form are not available or if the fund transfer instruction is rejected by the RBI or relevant bank, due to any reasons, then the amount payable to the Eligible Shareholders will be transferred to the concerned Stock Brokers' account for onward transfer to such Eligible Shareholder holding Equity Shares in dematerialized form.
- 13.3. In case of certain client types viz. NRI, foreign clients etc. (where there are specific RBI and other regulatory requirements pertaining to funds pay-out) who do not opt to settle through custodians, the funds pay-out would be given to their respective Stock Broker's settlement accounts for releasing the same to the respective Eligible Shareholder's account. For this purpose, the client type details would be collected from the Depositories, whereas funds payout pertaining to the bids settled through custodians will be transferred to the settlement bank account of the custodian, each in accordance with the applicable mechanism prescribed by Indian Stock Exchanges and the Clearing Corporation from time to time.
- 13.4. For the Eligible Shareholders holding Equity Shares in physical form, the funds pay-out would be given to their respective Stock Broker's settlement accounts for releasing the same to the respective Eligible Shareholder's account.
- 13.5. Details in respect of shareholder's entitlement for Tender Offer process will be provided to the Clearing Corporation by the Company or Registrar to the Buyback. On receipt of the same, Clearing Corporations will cancel the excess or unaccepted blocked shares in the demat account of the shareholder. On settlement date, all blocked shares mentioned in the accepted bid will be transferred to the Clearing Corporations.
- 13.6. In the case of inter depository, Clearing Corporations will cancel the excess or unaccepted shares in target depository. Source depository will not be able to release the lien without a release of IDT message from target depository. Further, release of IDT message shall be sent by target depository either based on cancellation request received from Clearing Corporations or automatically generated after matching with bid accepted detail as received from the Company or the Registrar to the Buyback. Post receiving the IDT message from target depository, source depository will cancel/release excess or unaccepted block shares in the demat account of the shareholder. Post completion of the Tendering Period and receiving the requisite details viz., demat account details and accepted bid quantity, source depository shall debit the securities as per the communication/message received from target depository to the extent of accepted bid shares from shareholder's demat account and credit it to Clearing Corporation settlement account in target depository on settlement date.
- 13.7. The Equity Shares bought back in the dematerialized form would be transferred directly to the demat account of the Company opened for the Buyback ("Company Demat Account") provided it is indicated by the Company's Broker or it will be transferred by the Company's Broker to the Company Demat Account on receipt of the Equity Shares from the clearing and settlement mechanism of the Stock Exchanges.
- 13.8. In relation to the physical Equity Shares:
- i. If physical Equity Shares tendered by Eligible Shareholders are not accepted, the share certificate would be returned to such Eligible Shareholders by registered post or by ordinary post or courier at the Eligible Shareholders' sole risk. The Company also encourages Eligible Shareholders holding physical shares to dematerialize their physical shares.
- ii. If however, only a portion of the physical shares held by an Eligible Shareholder is accepted in the Buyback then the Company shall instead of issuing a split share certificate towards the unaccepted shares, issue a Letter of Confirmation ("LOC") in accordance with SEBI Circular No. SEBI/HO/MIRSD/MIRSD_RTAM/P/ CIR/2022/8 dated January 25, 2022, as amended, with respect to the new consolidated share certificate for the unaccepted Equity Shares tendered in the Buyback. The LOC shall be dispatched to the address registered with the RTA. The RTA shall retain the original share certificate and deface the certificate with a stamp "Letter of Confirmation Issued" on the face / reverse of the certificate to the extent of the excess physical shares. The LOC shall be valid for a period of 120 days from the date of its issuance, within which the Equity Shareholder shall be required to make a request to their depository participant for dematerializing the physical Equity Shares. In case the Equity Shareholder fails to submit the demat request within the aforementioned period, the RTA shall credit the physical Equity Shares to a separate demat account of the Company opened for the said purpose. The lien marked against unaccepted Equity Shares will be released, if any, or would be returned by registered post or by ordinary post or courier (in case of physical shares) at the Eligible Shareholders' sole risk. Eligible Shareholders should ensure that their depository account is maintained till all formalities pertaining to the Buyback are completed.
- 13.9. The Stock Broker would issue contract note for the Equity Shares accepted under the Buyback. The Company's Broker would also issue a contract note to the Company for the Equity Shares accepted under the Buyback.
- 13.10. Equity Shareholders who intend to participate in the Buyback should consult their respective stock broker for payment to them of any cost, applicable taxes, charges and expenses (including brokerage) that may be levied by the Stock Broker upon the selling Eligible Shareholder for tendering Equity Shares in the Buyback (secondary market transaction). The Manager to the Buyback and the Company accept no responsibility to bear or pay any additional cost, applicable taxes, charges and expenses (including brokerage) levied by the stock broker, and such costs will be incurred solely by the Eligible Shareholders.
- 13.11. The Equity Shares lying to the credit of the Company Demat Account and the Equity Shares bought back and accepted in physical form will be extinguished in the manner and following the procedure prescribed in the Buyback Regulations.
14. RECORD DATE, OFFER PERIOD AND SHAREHOLDER ENTITLEMENT
- 14.1. As required under the Buyback Regulations, the Company has fixed October 16, 2026 as the record date ("Record Date") for the purpose of determining the entitlement and the names of the equity shareholders, who are eligible to participate in the Buyback. The tender period for the Buyback offer will commence from October 23, 2026, i.e., not later than 4 (four) working days from the Record Date and shall remain open for a period of 5 (five) working days, i.e., until October 29, 2026 ("Tendering Period").
- 14.2. As per the Buyback Regulations and such other circulars or notifications, as may be applicable, in due course, Eligible Shareholders will receive a letter of offer in relation to the Buyback ("Letter of Offer") along with a tender offer form indicating the entitlement of the Eligible Shareholder for participating in the Buyback. Even if the Eligible Shareholder does not receive the Letter of Offer along with a tender form, the Eligible Shareholder may participate and tender shares in the Buyback.
- All of the equity shareholders of the Company as on Record Date will be eligible to participate in the Buyback.
- 14.3. As required under the Buyback Regulations, the dispatch of the Letter of Offer shall be through electronic mode in accordance with the provisions of the Act, within 2 (two) working days from the Record Date or in the case of receipt of a request from any Eligible Shareholder to receive a copy of the Letter of Offer in physical form,

- 14.4. The Equity Shares proposed to be bought back by the Company shall be divided into 2 (two) categories and the entitlement of a shareholder in each category will be calculated; accordingly, (i) reserved category for Small Shareholders and (ii) the general category for all other Eligible Shareholders.
- 14.5. As defined in Regulation 2(i)(n) of the Buyback Regulations, a "Small Shareholder" is a shareholder who holds equity shares having market value, on the basis of closing price of shares on the stock exchanges, on which the highest trading volume in respect of the Equity Shares as on the Record Date was recorded, of not more than ₹2,00,000 (Indian Rupees Two Lakhs only).
- 14.6. In accordance with proviso to Regulation 6 of the Buyback Regulations, 15% of the number of Equity Shares which the Company proposes to buyback or the number of Equity Shares entitled as per the shareholding of Small Shareholders as on the Record Date, whichever is higher, shall be reserved for the Small Shareholders as part of this Buyback.
- 14.7. Based on the holding on the Record Date, the Company will determine the entitlement of each Eligible Shareholder to tender their shares in the Buyback. This entitlement for each Eligible Shareholder will be calculated based on the number of Equity Shares held by the respective shareholder as on the Record Date and the ratio of the Buyback applicable in the category to which such shareholder belongs ("Buyback Entitlement"). The Company believes that this reservation for small shareholders would benefit a large number of the Company's public shareholders, who would be classified as "Small Shareholders". Given that the promoters and members of the promoter group of the Company have expressed their intention not to participate in the Buyback, the Equity Shares held by members of the promoter/ promoter group shall not be considered for computing the entitlement ratio, in accordance with the proviso to Regulation 4(iv)(a) of the Buyback Regulations, and to that extent, the Eligible Shareholders will have a higher Buyback Entitlement ratio.
- 14.8. In accordance with Regulation 9(x) of the Buyback Regulations, to ensure that the same Eligible Shareholder(s) with multiple demat accounts/folios do not receive a higher entitlement under the Small Shareholder category, the Company will club together the Equity Shares held by such shareholders with a common PAN for determining the category (Small Shareholder or General) and entitlement under the Buyback. In case of joint shareholding, the Company will club together the Equity Shares held in cases where the sequence of the PANs of the joint shareholders is identical and where the PANs of all joint shareholders are not available, the Company will check the sequence of the names of the joint holders and club together the Equity Shares held in such cases where the name of joint shareholders are identical. In case of physical shareholders, where the sequence of PANs is identical and where the PANs of all joint shareholders are not available, the Registrar to the Buyback will check the sequence of the names of the joint holders and club together the Equity Shares held in such cases where the sequence of the PANs and name of joint shareholders are identical. The shareholding of institutional investors like mutual funds, pension funds/trusts and insurance companies etc., with common PAN will not be clubbed together for determining the category and will be considered separately, where these Equity Shares are held for different schemes and have a different demat account nomenclature based on information prepared by the Registrar and Transfer Agent as per the shareholder records received from the Depositories. Further, the Equity Shares held under the category of "clearing members" or "corporate body margin account" or "corporate body - broker" as per the beneficial position data as on the Record Date, with common PAN, are not proposed to be clubbed together for determining their entitlement and will be considered separately, where these Equity Shares are assumed to be held on behalf of clients.
- 14.9. After accepting the Equity Shares tendered on the basis of entitlement, the Equity Shares left to be bought back, if any, in one category shall first be accepted, in proportion to the Equity Shares tendered over and above their entitlement in the offer by Eligible Shareholders in that category, and thereafter from Eligible Shareholders who have tendered over and above their entitlement in the other category.
- 14.10. Eligible Shareholders' participation in the Buyback is voluntary. Eligible Shareholders may choose to participate, in part or in full, and receive cash in lieu of the Equity Shares accepted under the Buyback, or they may choose not to participate and enjoy a resultant increase in their percentage shareholding, after the completion of the Buyback, without any additional investment. Eligible Shareholders may also tender a part of their Buyback Entitlement. Eligible Shareholders also have the option of tendering Additional Equity Shares (i.e., Equity Shares over and above their Buyback Entitlement) and participate in the shortfall created due to non-participation of some other Eligible Shareholders, if any. The acceptance of any Equity Shares tendered in excess of the Buyback Entitlement by the Eligible Shareholder shall be in terms of procedure outlined herein. In case any Eligible Shareholder or any person claiming to be an Eligible Shareholder cannot participate in the Buyback Offer for any reason, the Company, the Manager and Registrar to the Buyback and their officers shall not be liable in any manner for such non-participation.
- 14.11. The maximum tender under the Buyback by an Eligible Shareholder cannot exceed the number of Equity Shares held by such Eligible Shareholder as on the Record Date. In case the Eligible Shareholder holds Equity Shares through multiple demat accounts, the tender through a demat account cannot exceed the number of Equity Shares held in that demat account as on the Record Date.
- 14.12. The Equity Shares tendered as per the entitlement by Eligible Shareholders as well as additional Equity Shares tendered, if any, will be accepted as per the procedure laid down in the Buyback Regulations. The settlement of the tenders under the Buyback will be done using the "Mechanism for acquisition of shares through Stock Exchange pursuant to Tender-Offers under Takeovers, Buy Back and Delisting" notified under the SEBI Circulars. Eligible Shareholders will receive a Letter of Offer along with a tender/offer form indicating their respective entitlement for participating in the Buyback.
- 14.13. Detailed instructions for participation in the Buyback (tender of Equity Shares in the Buyback) as well as the relevant time table will be included in the Letter of Offer which, along with the tender offer form, will be sent in due course to the Eligible Shareholders as on Record Date who have their email address registered with the Company/Registrar and transfer agent/Depositories.

RISK TO INVESTORS

(For details refer to section titled "Risk Factors" on page 25 of the Prospectus)

1. Dependence on certain key B2B customers: We operate through B2B and D2C business models; however, our revenue from operations is significantly dependent on a limited number of B2B customers comprising retail chains, standalone retailers and wholesalers. Details of the contribution from our B2B operations and top 10 customers are set out below:

(₹ in million, except percentages)

Particulars	Fiscal 2026		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024
	Amount	% of revenue from operations	Amount	% of revenue from operations	Amount	% of revenue from operations
Revenue from B2B operations	1,939.18	95.58%	968.37	99.99%	536.51	99.99%
Revenue from top 10 customers	1,125.95	55.49%	742.62	76.68%	451.99	84.24%

The loss of, reduction in purchases by, or deterioration of our relationships with one or more of our key B2B customers, or our inability to diversify our customer base or increase the contribution from our D2C operations, could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

2. Geographic concentration of revenue: We derive a substantial portion of our revenue from operations from domestic markets, which contributed 97.44%, 99.93% and 99.15% of our revenue from operations in Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, respectively. In particular, Gujarat, Karnataka, Maharashtra, Telangana and Tamil Nadu collectively contributed ₹1,725.20 million, ₹897.85 million and ₹506.63 million, representing 85.03%, 92.71% and 94.42% of our revenue from operations during the same periods, respectively. Our business is therefore significantly exposed to regional demand patterns, consumer preferences, economic conditions, competition, regulatory or taxation changes, and logistics or supply-chain disruptions in these states. Further, our overseas operations remain limited and contributed only 2.56%, 0.07% and 0.85% of our revenue from operations.

3. Working capital-intensive operations: Our business is working capital intensive due to upfront payments required for the procurement of gold and lab-grown diamonds, maintenance of inventory across various stages of production and extension of credit to our B2B customers. On a standalone basis, our working capital requirement increased from ₹67.65 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹251.12 million in Fiscal 2025 and ₹449.46 million in Fiscal 2026, primarily due to increased deployment towards inventories and trade receivables. In Fiscal 2026, our inventory holding period and receivable days were 59 days and 22 days, respectively. Our estimated working capital requirement is projected to further increase to ₹1,103.08 million in Fiscal 2027, and we intend to utilise a portion of the Net Proceeds towards funding such requirements. However, there can be no assurance that the Net Proceeds, internal accruals or available borrowings will be sufficient to meet our future working capital requirements. Any inability to accurately estimate, adequately fund or efficiently manage our working capital, including due to fluctuations in raw material prices, higher inventory levels, delays in collection of receivables or constraints in accessing additional financing, could adversely affect our liquidity, disrupt our operations and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

4. Dependence on a limited number of suppliers: We depend on a limited number of domestic suppliers for the procurement of key raw materials, including gold bullion and lab-grown diamonds. Details of our supplier concentration are set out below:

(₹ in million, except percentages)

Particulars	Fiscal 2026		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024
	Amount	% of total purchases	Amount	% of total purchases	Amount	% of total purchases
Purchases from largest supplier	989.73	55.11%	490.45	49.45%	182.29	40.25%
Purchases from top 10 suppliers	1,547.32	86.16%	935.42	94.31%	394.18	87.05%

We do not typically enter into long-term procurement contracts with a majority of our suppliers, and our purchases are largely based on prevailing market conditions and order requirements. Accordingly, any disruption in supply, adverse changes in pricing, credit terms or delivery timelines, or our inability to procure raw materials of the required quality and quantity on commercially viable terms from existing or alternative suppliers could increase our procurement costs, disrupt production schedules, affect our ability to fulfil customer orders and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

5. Concentration of manufacturing operations and underutilisation of capacity: Our entire manufacturing operations are conducted from a single facility located in Surat, Gujarat, admeasuring approximately 7,000 square feet, and we do not have any alternative manufacturing facility. Details of the capacity and utilisation of this facility are set out below:

Particulars	Fiscal 2026	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024
Installed capacity (kg per annum)	360.00	360.00	360.00
Actual production (kg)	162.77	115.20	72.49
Capacity utilisation	45.21%	32.00%	20.14%

Any disruption at this facility due to machinery breakdowns, equipment obsolescence, fire, accidents, labour disruptions, power shortages, infrastructure constraints, regulatory actions, natural calamities or other unforeseen events could delay production, increase costs and affect our ability to fulfil customer orders. Further, continued underutilisation may limit our ability to absorb fixed costs and adversely affect our operating margins and profitability, while periods of higher demand may require operational adjustments that could affect efficiency or product quality. Any disruption in our manufacturing operations, inability to maintain quality standards or failure to effectively utilise our production capacity could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

6. Quality requirements and product returns: Our lab-grown diamond studded gold jewellery is subject to stringent quality requirements relating to design specifications, metal purity, gemstone quality, finishing and durability. Notwithstanding our multi-stage quality control processes, there can be no assurance that our products will be free from defects, inconsistencies or deviations from customer specifications. Details of product returns, based on standalone financial information, are set out below:

Particulars	Fiscal 2026	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024
Value of goods returned (₹ in million)	246.69	171.76	32.48
Product returns as a percentage of gross sales	11.91%	17.64%	6.05%

These returns related to our B2B sales and were primarily attributable to mismatches with customer preferences or specifications and inventory rotation or replacement undertaken in the ordinary course of business. Any increase in product returns, including due to quality issues, design mismatches or evolving customer preferences, may result in product rejection, cancellation of orders, rework, replacement, recycling or logistics costs, loss of revenue and pressure on our margins. Further, our recently commenced D2C operations may expose us to additional return risks arising from direct consumer expectations. Any failure to maintain required quality standards or effectively manage product returns could damage our reputation and customer relationships and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

7. Negative cash flows: We experienced negative cash flows from operating and investing activities during the last three Fiscals, while our liquidity was supported by positive cash flows from financing activities, including proceeds from the issuance of share capital and borrowings. Details of our cash flows are set out below:

(₹ in million)

Particulars	Fiscal 2026	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024
Net cash used in operating activities	(147.32)	(100.52)	(10.51)
Net cash used in investing activities	(19.93)	(4.19)	(8.25)
Net cash generated from financing activities	168.58	107.15	17.26
Net increase/(decrease) in cash and cash equivalents	1.33	2.44	(1.50)

Our negative operating cash flows, despite reporting profits, were primarily attributable to significant working capital deployment towards inventories and trade receivables, while negative investing cash flows primarily resulted from capital expenditure towards property, plant and equipment and the development of our manufacturing capabilities. Any sustained negative cash flows may limit our ability to fund working capital requirements, meet financial obligations and invest in growth initiatives, and may increase our dependence on external financing, which may not be available on acceptable terms or at all.

8. Related party transactions: We have entered into transactions with our Promoters, Group Companies and other related parties in the ordinary course of business and may continue to do so in the future. The details of such transactions are set out below:

(₹ in million, except percentages)

Particulars	Fiscal 2026	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024
Absolute sum of all related party transactions	676.97	376.58	94.37
Revenue from operations	2,028.94	968.45	536.55
Related party transactions as a percentage of revenue from operations	33.37%	38.88%	17.59%

Note: The absolute sum stated above includes transactions between our Company and its Subsidiaries that are eliminated on consolidation. Excluding such intra-group transactions, the absolute sum of related party transactions represented 9.31%, 33.16% and 17.49% of our revenue from operations in Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

While our related party transactions during these periods were undertaken in the ordinary course of business, on an arm's-length basis and in compliance with applicable laws, future transactions may involve actual or potential conflicts of interest. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will always be in the best interests of our Company or minority Shareholders or will not adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

9. Dependence on discretionary consumer spending and preferences: Lab-grown diamond studded gold jewellery is a discretionary consumer product, and demand for our products is influenced by consumer purchasing power, income and employment levels, inflation, interest rates, economic growth and consumer confidence. A significant portion of our revenue is derived from B2B operations, and orders placed by retailers, wholesalers and distributors are directly linked to end-consumer demand. During periods of economic uncertainty or slowdown, consumers may defer or reduce jewellery purchases, which may lead to lower order volumes, reduced inventory stocking by our customers, increased price sensitivity and pressure on our margins. Demand is also affected by consumer perceptions of lab-grown diamonds compared to natural diamonds and other jewellery products, as well as preferences for alternative investment assets. Further, our recently commenced D2C operations under Ayaani depend on our ability to attract and retain customers in a competitive retail and online environment. Any sustained decline in discretionary consumer spending, adverse macroeconomic conditions or shift in consumer preferences away from lab-grown diamond jewellery could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

10. Change in eligibility route under the SEBI ICDR Regulations: At the time of filing the DRHP, our Company did not satisfy the eligibility requirements under Regulations 6(1)(a) and 6(1)(b) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations. Our net tangible assets for Fiscal 2023 were ₹12.44 million, below the prescribed threshold of ₹30.00 million, and our average operating profit for Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023 was ₹59.39 million, below the prescribed threshold of ₹150.00 million. Accordingly, the Issue was proposed to be undertaken pursuant to Regulation 6(2). Following the inclusion of Fiscal 2026 and exclusion of Fiscal 2023 from the relevant three-year period, we now satisfy the eligibility requirements under Regulation 6(1), and the Issue is proposed to be undertaken pursuant to Regulation 6(1). However, our net tangible assets for Fiscal 2024, 2025 and 2026 were ₹53.30 million, ₹225.66 million and ₹711.20 million respectively; exceeding the prescribed threshold of ₹30.00 million and our average operating profit for Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024 was ₹151.39 million, exceeding the prescribed threshold of ₹150.00 million by ₹1.39 million, or approximately 0.93%. Our satisfaction of the eligibility requirements should not be considered indicative of our ability to maintain comparable operating profit, net tangible assets, net worth or financial performance in the future.

11. Significant historical growth may not be sustained: We have experienced significant growth in our revenue from operations, EBITDA, profit after tax and margins over a relatively short period, as set out below:

Particulars	Fiscal 2026	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024
Revenue from operations (₹ in million)	2,028.94	968.45	536.55
EBITDA (₹ in million)	309.74	129.01	54.76
EBITDA margin	15.27%	13.32%	10.21%
Profit after tax (₹ in million)	223.15	97.88	40.24
Profit after tax margin	11.00%	10.11%	7.50%

Our growth was supported by the expansion of our B2B operations, increasing acceptance of lab-grown diamond studded gold jewellery, scaling of our manufacturing capabilities and improvements in operational efficiencies. However, such historical growth and improvement in margins may not be sustained or indicative of our future performance. Our performance is subject to fluctuations in customer demand, changes in consumer preferences, volatility in gold and lab-grown diamond prices, working capital constraints, customer concentration, competitive pressures and our ability to effectively manage the scaling of our operations. Any slowdown in revenue growth, compression of margins, increase in costs or inability to sustain our profitability or effectively manage our expanded operations could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

12. Valuation multiples: At the Floor Price of ₹70 and the Cap Price of ₹75 per Equity Share, our Market Value at the respective price to Total Turnover ratio is 1.99 times and 2.13 times, respectively, and our P/E Ratio is 12.68 times and 13.59 times, respectively. These valuation multiples are based on the Floor Price and Cap Price and our financial information for the relevant period and may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares upon or after listing. The market price of our Equity Shares may decline below the Issue Price.

13. The Price/Earnings ratio based on diluted EPS for Fiscal 2026 for the Issuer at the upper end of the Price band is 13.59 as high as compared to the average industry peer group PE ratio of 20.16.

14. Weighted Average Return on Net Worth for Fiscal 2026, 2025 and 2024 is 65.67%

RISK TO INVESTORS
For details, refer to section titled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 21 of the Prospectus

1. Government policies related risk- Our business and revenues in the manufacturing segment for Pre-Stressed Concrete ("PSC") sleepers are substantially dependent on railroad infrastructure projects undertaken or awarded by government authorities such as the Ministry of Railways and operations of Indian Railways and other government owned public sector undertakings such as Indian Railways, DFCCIL (Dedicated Freight Corridor Corporation of India Ltd.) and are thereby dependent on governmental policies and budgetary allocation and if we are unable to continue to receive orders in the manner we have in the past from the different zonal divisions of Indian Railways, it may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.
Set out below is our revenue contribution from contracts awarded to us by the government and government-controlled entities during Fiscal 2026, Fiscal 2025 and Fiscal 2024, together with such revenue contribution as a percentage of our total Revenue from Operations for the same period:
7. Geographic Concentration Risk- Our business is relatively concentrated in certain specific parts of India and any adverse development in such parts of India may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. As on Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, below is the revenue generated from the various states wherein we operate.

Our total revenue generated from our manufacturing and service business are predominantly derived from certain number of customers and any cancellation or termination by our customers or delay or reduction in their orders or instances where anticipated orders fail to materialize can result in mismatch between our inventories of raw materials and supply of manufactured products, thereby increasing our costs relating to maintaining our inventory and reduction of our margins.

4. Revenue from Service Segment risk- A substantial increase in our profitability in the recent past has been contributed by the increase in the revenue and the higher margins in the services segment and our efforts and development of business in this segment. There can be no assurance that we will continue to enjoy higher revenue and profitability from such segment on a regular basis in the future. Any reduction or fall in the revenue from the services segment in the future may have an adverse effect on our profitability.
The profit margins from service segment during Fiscal 2026, Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024 was:

*The margins have been calculated on profit before tax basis

5. Purchase orders risk- Our business is based on periodic purchase orders raised by our customers based on their requirements from time to time. Though, we have not faced any situation in the last three Fiscals and as on date of the Red Herring Prospectus, wherein any delay in allocation of our orders has resulted in unanticipated delays in realisation of our expected revenue and expenditure for retention of labour planned for fulfilling the orders, however we cannot assure that we will not face such situation in the future. Further, as substantially all of our products are customised to specific customer requirements, there could be a time delay in redeploying the equipment, machinery and production lines for use in manufacturing different products, which could adversely affect our business, results of operations and cash flows. Any delay in allocation of our orders can result in unanticipated delays in realisation of our expected revenue and expenditure for retention of labour planned for fulfilling the orders.
6. Competitive Bidding Process risk- Most of our projects are awarded to us through a competitive bidding process involving governmental authorities. Therefore, our business is dependent on securing tenders for projects, which involves cost estimations and other factors for the bidding process. We cannot assure you that we would bid where we have been pre-qualified to submit a bid, or that our bids, when submitted or if already submitted, would necessarily result in projects being awarded to us. The table below sets out details in relation to the bids submitted by our Company bids lost, bids won, and our bid to win ratio in Fiscal 2026, Fiscal 2025 and Fiscal 2024.

11. Possession of Land related risk- Our sleeper manufacturing facility in Mohol, Maharashtra is located on parcels of land owned by one of our Promoters, Brij B Tapadiya. The Company has entered into an Agreement for Sale for this property with the said Promoter and are in the process of entering into a definitive sale deed. While our Company is making best effort to finalize and execute the sale deed, there can be no assurance that we will be able to execute and finalize a sale deed recording the transfer of the property in the name of the Company in compliance with regulatory requirements. Any failure to enter into a definitive sale deed with our Promoter will not give us a freehold right on the property and we cannot assure that we will be able to continue on the property without any hindrance or being asked to vacate at any point of time by our Promoter in the absence of such sale deed.
12. Indebtedness risk- Our Company has significant borrowings and other financial obligations and a high debt to equity ratio, which may adversely affect our financial flexibility, and which may further affect our results of operations and business strategies. If our operating cash flows and profitability do not develop as expected, we may face difficulty in servicing our debt obligations, which may force us to re-negotiate terms with our lenders or incur higher financing costs thereby affecting our results of operations and business.
13. Credit extension risk- Our operations involve extending credit, to our customers in respect of our services. Consequently, we face the risk of the uncertainty regarding the receipt of these outstanding amounts in a timely manner, or at all. Accordingly, we had and may continue to have high levels of outstanding receivables.

14. Product demand risk- The demand for our railway products such as PSC sleepers, precast and pre-stressed products such as noise barriers and cable ducts will depend on the implementation schedule of metro and railway projects and growth of passenger traffic in railways and metro rail transit system. Our revenues from sale of railway products would depend on the growth of the passenger traffic and goods traffic in railways and metro rail transit system and a lesser than expected growth could adversely affect the demand for our railway products and may have an adverse effect on our revenue, profit and business growth.
15. Potential Litigation Risk- Our Company and one of our Promoter, Director and employee were cited in a First Investigation Report ("FIR") regarding a suspected offence under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988. While our Company, its Promoters, Directors and employees have not been included as a part of any chargesheet or outstanding litigation in connection with the FIR, there can be no assurance that further action or proceedings in the matter will not be reinitiated, the findings of which may adversely affect our business, and results of operations. The FIR registered in connection with the above matter, mentioned the name of our Company, one of our Promoters, namely Pavan Vithaldas Tapadiya, one of our Directors, namely Natraj Gopikishan Ladda and one of our employees. However, upon investigation it was ascertained that neither our Company, nor Promoters, Directors or any of our employees were involved in the alleged matter and no charge has been levelled against our Company, Promoters, Directors, employees, Key Managerial Personnel, Senior Management or any of our Group Companies or their officers by the CBI in their charge sheet filed on April 16, 2025, neither in any criminal proceedings that may have been initiated in the matter as on date of the Red Herring Prospectus.

12. Summary of reasons for recommendation	The IDC has taken into consideration the following for making recommendations: IDC has reviewed PA dated July 24, 2026, Corrigendum to the PA dated July 30, 2026, DPS dated July 31, 2026, DLOF dated August 07, 2026 and LOF dated September 28, 2026. The IDC noted that, the Equity Shares of the Target Company are frequently traded within the meaning of the SEBI (SAST) Regulations and that the Offer Price has been determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of the SEBI (SAST) Regulations. The IDC also noted that, as disclosed in the LOF, Ms. Priyanka Singh, Independent Registered Valuer, IBBI Regn.: IBBI/RV/05/2021/14362 vide Valuation Report dated July 24, 2026, bearing Unique Document Identification Number - 26543478GJOBBY2615, has certified the fair value of equity shares of the Target Company at Rs. 34.51 (Rupees Thirty-Four and Fifty-One Paise Only) per equity share, in accordance with Regulation 8(2) of the SEBI (SAST) Regulations. The IDC further noted the Acquirers are making the Open Offer at an Offer Price of Rs. 36.50 (Rupees Thirty-Six and Fifty Paise Only) per Equity Share, which is higher than the aforesaid fair value determined by the Independent Registered Valuer. The members of the IDC confirm that, as on the date of this recommendation, neither the Target Company nor the Manager to the Offer have received any complaints till date from shareholders in relation to the Open Offer, including with respect to the Offer Price or the valuation methodology adopted. Based on the above, the IDC is of the opinion that as on the date of this recommendation, the Offer Price of Rs. 36.50 (Rupees Thirty-Six and Fifty Paise Only) per equity share offered by the Acquirers to the public shareholders of the Target Company, being higher than the relevant price determined in accordance with the Regulation 8(2) of the SEBI (SAST) Regulations, prima facie appears to be justified. Therefore, IDC recommend acceptance of the Open Offer made by the Acquirers as the Offer Price of Rs. 36.50 (Rupees Thirty-Six and Fifty Paise Only) per fully paid-up equity share is fair and reasonable. However, IDC would like to draw attention of the public shareholders that the equity shares of the Target Company are presently trading on NSE Emerge at a price that is higher than the Offer Price. The IDC further notes that the Equity Shares of the Target Company are presently under Enhanced Surveillance Measures ("ESM"): Stage 1. The public shareholders are advised to independently evaluate the Open Offer via current share price and take an informed decision, before participating in the Open Offer.
